The Department of Correction has been much in the limelight the past two years for it was to this department that it was proposed to place the control of the penal institutions of the various counties of the state. The department is under the control of a commissioner, assisted by two deputies, and is responsible for five state institutions, the State Prison at Charlestown, the Massachusetts Reformatory at Concord Junction, the Reformatory for Women at Sherborn, the Prison Camp and Hospital at West Rutland, and the State Farm at Bridgewater. In the department and yet not of it, strictly speaking, is the Board of Parole, consisting of two persons, appointed by the Governor and one of (Continued on Page 3)

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Woman's Association of Central Church met Oct. 4th. Mrs. D. P. Jewett was in charge of the sewing and Mrs. F. C. Bassett was the hostess. Masses of dahlias, cosmos and zinnias made the tables most attractive. Out of town guests included Mrs. Margaret L. Eddy, mother of Rev. Brewster Eddy, Mrs. Wuerple, Mrs. C. P. Ackert, Mrs. Midlam of St. Louis, friends of Mrs. Lichter. Mr. Lichter suggested to the Association the holding of frequent church suppers on the nights of the mid-week service. Mrs. Decatur, president, spoke earnestly of the need for workers and of the blessing of service. She urged the members to volunteer to assume some share of responsibility and to state on slips of paper the work preferred. There was a ready response and a hearty spirit (Continued on page 3)

FOOTBALL

With the first two games tucked away as victories the 1922 Newton eleven stands ready to face the opening gun of the Suburban League race, to be fired when Everett trots onto Claffin Field next Thursday afternoon. Last Saturday Newton defeated Quincy 13-0, and on Wednesday the Orange and Black stopped Dean Academy 2nd by the same score. Just a word on the Dean and Quincy games. Newton won both contests without any excessive amount of effort and at no time during either encounter was Coach Dickinson obliged to drive his men. Quincy made but three first downs and Dean found the Newton line equally as solid. Naturally, as well as fortunately, several Newton faults cropped out during the course of the games. Far better to (Continued on Page 3)

NEW SCHOOLHOUSE ORDERED

A rather large attendance of spectators dwindled down rapidly at the meeting of the aldermen on Monday night after President Hollis had stated that no action would be taken that evening on the petition of the Castle Inn at Auburndale for a victualler license. Auburndale was rather worked up over the prospect and sent a large delegation that evening to keep tabs on the board. Aldermen Hickey and Nichols were the only absentees. There were many routine hearings on pole locations and conduits for the Edison and Gas Light companies in which no one was interested. The petitions of J. J. Eustis to keep gasoline on Chandler st., and of Mrs. Anna B. Scully to enlarge her garage on Wade street to accommodate 12 (Continued on Page 3)

Coal Shortage

PERFECTION OIL HEATERS

As a result of the coal and railroad strikes, it is evident New England householders face a serious shortage of fuel during the coming winter. The gravity of the situation is not generally realized by the public.

Perfection Oil Heaters will be of the utmost help in overcoming the discomfort and inconveniences incident to this fuel shortage. We have ordered a large supply of heaters which we hope will take care of the demands of our customers.

It will be to your advantage, therefore, immediately to give most careful consideration to your heater requirements and place your order with us at once.

Immediate attention to this matter is essential for the supply of heaters will of necessity be limited—we do not want our customers to suffer this winter for lack of heat.

HOW MASSACHUSETTS IS GOVERNED

The department deputies appointed by the commissioner. The board has jurisdiction over the granting of paroles in all the institutions of the department and also advises the Governor on all applications for parole or pardons.

The total penal population of the state last year was 3,389, an increase over that of the previous year but less than half for the year 1914. The department attributes this to the absence of the open saloon and to the increased use of probation by the courts in place of prison commitment.

It has been continually felt by this Department that the great test of the success of any prison system is the conduct of the offender after his release. In contrast to the general policy of discharging men into the community without a friend at the expiration of their full term, the policy of release on parole has been adopted and extended until at the present time practically every case of release from a State institution is made before the end of the maximum term, reserving a period of limited supervision to be exercised over the paroled men by the officials of this Department. In other words, although a man by his court sentence is placed in the custody of the State Prison for from six to ten years, he may be released at the end of four years on a definite contract with the Department to deport himself in a discreet and law-abiding manner. The benefits of such a release have been frequently explained. It is important to send a man out, not feeling that he has discharged his obligation and is free to pray upon society again, but to release him under an obligation to the State, to realize that a privilege has been extended to him and that he is merely on trial and may be taken back into prison again if he shows himself incapable of getting along in the community.

The parole work has been remarkably well organized. It is fundamentally that, if possible, employment should be obtained for every inmate previous to his discharge. This is an exceedingly difficult thing to secure. Proper home influences ought to be assured, and the man is invariably fitted out with such tools as he needs, a sufficient amount of clothing and a small amount of money to allow him to subsist, pending the receipt of his first installment of wages. It was realized, however, that even with the best supervision which this Department undertakes, even with the periodical visits of the agent and the regular reports from the offender, his leisure time was still uncovered, and the difficult problem of adjusting him in the community was still unsolved. It was with a view to supply this lack that a conference of representatives from the various civic, charitable and community agencies was called by this Department at which a definite program was considered and adopted.

The industries carried on in the penal institutions is an important part of the work of the department. The law requires some 800 municipal and state institutions to make their purchases of various kinds of materials from goods made in the penal institutions. The labor of each inmate is used to make many things including aluminum ware, bedding, blankets, clothing, various kinds of brushes, cloths, flags, furniture, galvanized iron ware, hosiery, mats, mattresses, mittens, pillows, sheets, spreads, shoes, underwear and yarns. The income from this source is considerable, amounting to $134,637 in 1920 and $58,000 last year.

The identification bureau is constantly increasing in importance and all the inmates of the prisons of the state have been finger-printed. Bertillon and photograph records are kept for the use of the police and other penal institutions.

The growing importance of the necessity of looking after the feeble-minded population of the state in order to prevent the commission of crime as well as to prevent the propagation of other feeble-minded persons has led to the establishment of a department for defective delinquents at the State Farm at Bridgewater. This class of persons constitutes 27 per cent of the population of the penal institutions of the country and they form a large proportion of those who are arrested again and again for minor offenses. These people need special training with restraint and discipline and it is expected that the new department will fill a long felt necessity.

Catholic and Protestant chaplains are provided and there are Sunday services at each of the institutions.

The department has agents for aiding discharged prisoners and for aiding discharged female prisoners.

The health of the inmates is looked after by resident physicians at each institution and a searching physical examination is made of each new arrival, and a record kept of each inmate.

Libraries are provided in each of the prisons of the state and county, with a total of over 41,000 volumes, and each inmate of the prisons is furnished with literature on Americanization and the fundamentals of American government.

The annual report of the department gives the menus of meals served to the inmates of all the penal institutions and which are too lengthy to be given in this article.

State Prison

This is the institution to which are sent felons and serious offenders, and corresponds to the penitentiaries in other States. All commitments are made on a maximum and minimum sentence, and no person can be committed for less than two and one-half years. No women are taken at this institution.

The location of the prison in the congested district of Charlestown makes it necessary to conduct it as an industrial prison primarily.

The industries maintained at the prison are the manufacture of shoes, aluminum and metal ware, brushes, mattresses and clothing. A very important department of the metal ware industry is the manufacture of automobile number plates for the Department of Public Works, which has been carried on for about two years.

A school for illiterates is maintained every evening, which is attended by approximately 100 men, most of whom are foreigners or who have had little chance at an education. In addition, there is maintained a graded school for those desiring further education, at which are taught arithmetic, civil government, English, commercial law, Spanish and shorthand.

There are two full-time clergymen, one representing the Catholic and the other the Protestant faith, who conduct the religious services on Sundays, supervise the editing of the State Prison paper, known as "The Mentor," and preside over the library. There are also visiting clergymen representing the Jewish and Christian Science beliefs.

The men are given a short period of outdoor exercise in the yard every day, immediately following the closing down of the shops, and also are allowed outdoor exercise on Saturday afternoons. A system of military drill and calisthenics has been instituted, and two companies have been formed under the leadership of a former Y.D. captain.

The Department maintains an agent to examine into the home conditions of all inmates of the prison and a reformatory. Many of these men were suddenly withdrawn from their families, and would be occasioned serious loss, financial or otherwise, unless some person was interested in keeping the family together until the man's release.

Massachusetts Reformatory

The reformatory was established in 1876 for the treatment of younger criminals. Its population should be confined to boys over 17 and under 25 years of age. Inmates are sent there for an indeterminate sentence and released on the recommendation of the State Board of Parole. The idea underlying the reformatory is to supply the idea of punishment with that of education. A model system of marks and promotions is employed, and each inmate is supposed to earn his parole by good behavior and diligence in work and study.

The physical plant at the reformatory is one of the best of any of the penal institutions in the country, and has been considerably improved since it was originally opened. The cells all contain individual plumbing and electric lights. There is a congregate dining room, a chapel, a separate school building and schoolrooms, and a separate hospital building. There is ample outdoor space for drill and exercise, and a large farm is maintained in connection with the institution.

A school of letters is maintained from 6.30 to 8.30 P. M. every day, with a superintendent of schools in charge and paid civilian instructors. Military drill is provided, both squad, company and battalion drill. On two afternoons a week the boys are given the privilege of outdoor exercise within the walls, as well as on Sunday afternoons and for a short period each day after the shops are closed.

A separate building is devoted to a bathhouse and laundry, where every boy is obliged to take a shower bath at least once a week and often during certain seasons of the year.

The keynote of the reformatory system is discipline. It is attempted to have the boys march with precision and from their meals, to keep them checked up on their behavior by a system of marks, and thus teach them respect for authority and the necessity of order. There are of course, which is what they principally lack.

Reformatory for Women

This institution receives all women committed from the courts of the Commonwealth not sent to the jails and houses of correction or to the State Farm. A woman is ordinarily committed on an indeterminate sentence, but life prisoners may be sent here, as are persons for terms longer than ten years. While this prison is primarily an industrial institution, much is made of a large farm in connection therewith, and during the open weather good results are obtained by working the inmates on the farm.

A prominent feature here, as elsewhere, is the careful investigation and charting of the history of each inmate socially, industrially, physically and psychologically, in an effort to diagnose and wisely treat each individual case.

The principal industry is sewing and knitting. Many of the flags now publicly displayed in New England were manufactured by the women at the reformatory.

Prison Camp and Hospital

At West Rutland is maintained a hospital for the treatment of tubercular prisoners, to which are transferred from all the State and county prisons men who have been diagnosed as tubercular. There they receive a special diet and hospital care. The hospital is located on high ground, 3 miles from the State tuberculosis sanatorium. Fresh milk and eggs form a prominent place in the diet.

In order to maintain this hospital, a prison camp has been established in the vicinity, to which are transferred honor men from the other penal institutions of the State. This camp, section of the Prison Camp and Hospital has been extended, so that at one time seven small prison camps were in operation in connection with certain of the State institutions. It has been the practice to reward good conduct in penal institutions by a transfer to camp, where the men have the privilege of outdoor work, learn responsibility and self-reliance, and instead of finishing their terms in a debilitated condition, have from three to six months' preparation before resuming work in the community. These camps are in any way used to reduce the punishment of persons sentenced by the courts. As a general thing, a man is not transferred until near the end of his term.

State Farm

This is the largest of the group of penal institutions, and was up to August, 1919, governed by a Board of Trustees under the supervision of the State Board of Charity. The State Farm was one of the first experiments along the line of a prison farm in the country. It has maintained a splendid farm of 1,100 acres, which has been visited by a great many persons interested in the work of an institution of this nature.

Its inmates are of three classes. The prison department consists of persons committed for drunkenness and other minor offenses, who are considered by the court to need a certain amount of confinement combined with hard manual labor and farm life. Commitments are made for an indeterminate term of one or two years. Upon their first commitment these men are held for only a part of their time and are then released on parole, and may be brought back to serve the remainder of their sentences provided their conduct is not satisfactory.

This institution also houses a number of paupers. It was originally established as a State almshouse for the southeastern district of Massachusetts, and the pauper population is a remnant of the days when the Bridgewater institution was an almshouse.

The third division of this institution is known as the Bridgewater State Hospital and houses the criminal insane. Here are kept 800 or more men adjudged to be insane by the courts during trial or on transfer from other penal institutions of the State.

The only industry carried on at this institution is the maintenance of the farm, which is in itself a considerable undertaking.

The estimated expenses for running the penal institutions of the state for this year was as follows: State Prison, $305,957; Mass. Reformatory, $331,830; Reformatory for Women, $186,607; Prison Camp, $78,440 and State Farm, $446,580.

SECOND CHURCH SERVICE

Rev. J. Edgar Park of West Newton preached an eloquent sermon at the morning service of the Second Church before a congregation of eight hundred people. His plea was for a universal church with Christianity, the universal religion.

The subject "Living Water" was chosen from the fourth chapter of St. John, the tenth verse, "Living Water," said Mr. Park, "is, in its hidden meaning, 'the magic spring of religion.' From it, if we drink wisely, comes the true Christian viewpoint of breadth."

Jesus, the foundation of all liberal religion in this story in the fourth chapter of St. John. He broke Jewish customs in three instances: first, He ate with the heathen, which teaches that all fellow human beings shall be as one; second, He talked with women which was expressly forbidden. This has led to the great forward strides in the emancipation of women since His coming; third, Jesus was not interested in forms. He has made it clear in this story that it is not what place or church one worships in that brings one into closer touch with God, but regardless of creed and form, it is the spirit and truth that we worship God.

"Christ preached this and lived it in his every day life. This is our opportunity, to inspire all whom we meet in our daily living. There is this missionary spirit in every man even as it was in Christ."

The Chancel choir of thirty-two voices sang with William Lester Barre, Organist and Director. The Allen Military School and the Fessenden School students were heartily greeted upon their reappearance at the Church service after the summer holidays.

REAL ESTATE

Nicholas J. Murphy, Inc., report the sale of the attractive, solid tapestry brick Colonial residence situated on 59 Metacomb road, corner of Beacon street, Waban, consisting of nine rooms and three baths. There is a two-car garage and 12,600 square feet of land and the total valuation is $25,000. Alfred W. Donovan was the purchaser.

Nicholas J. Murphy, Inc., have also sold the new white Colonial residence at 12 Vineyard road, Newton Centre. This is one of several beautiful homes Mr. Murphy is building in the high class restricted location just off Commonwealth avenue, between Cedar and Morton streets. With the house is a garage and 8024 square feet of land, all being valued at $14,500. Elsa Daloz purchased for a home and is now occupying it.

Nicholas J. Murphy, Inc., report that final papers have gone to record for the sale of the modern single house at 52 Channing road, Newton Centre. There is also a garage and 5000 square feet of land and the total valuation is $10,500. G. W. Bryden conveyed to C. J. McCarthy, who bought for occupancy.

Nicholas J. Murphy, Inc., were brokers in the sale of the modern single residence at 136 Langley road, Newton Centre. With the house is a garage and 5000 square feet of land and the total valuation is $8,800, $1700 being on the land. C. W. Schnetzer conveyed to L. E. Leeson who intends to occupy.

TROOP 7 BOY SCOUTS

Troop 7 Boy Scouts enjoyed immensely a hike through the Weston woods last Saturday under the leadership of Scout Master Harlan D. Crowell and Asst. Deputy Commissioner E. J. Ovington. It was an all day hike starting from the Second Church in West Newton at 9.00 o'clock and ending at the same place, some in the afternoon and some after the camp fire in the evening.

A great many tests were passed by the scouts attending. All of the following boys passed three or more tests: Edward Stearns, Jimmie Esson, Marshall Plazier, Bob Fisher, Delano Cannon and Madison Cannon. Neal Lovel, Everett Upham and Bill Bengner were successful in passing the first class cooking tests by making delicious hunters stew and twist.

The grammar school boys of the troop have formed a football team, but were badly beaten by the Angier School in Waban on Tuesday afternoon. The following boys made the trip team: Gus Gadsden, Ben Bowen, Jim Esson, George Hicks, Webster Gadsden, John Cole, Alvin Stearns, Bob Fowler, Jimmie Dewing, Horace Rounds and Charlie Benson. It is quite probable that Ned Dewing, a member of the high school team and former merit badge scout in this troop, will act as coach of the Troop 7 team.

50 Years on Washington Street

Y. M. C. A.

The gymnasium schedule of activities at the local Y began October 2 with a rush and all classes were well attended throughout the week. The young men's class meeting Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights was especially well attended, the class entering into the work and play with great enthusiasm.

The junior classes were also well attended. A thorough physical examination will be made of each boy as a safeguard to his health. Corrective exercises, marching, group games, swimming, diving and life saving will be included in the program for boys.

The 5.15 class for men meeting Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings gives promise of becoming a good class. This class is open to all senior members. The first part of the class period is given over to a snappy all-round setting-up drill, followed by volleyball, hand ball, shower and swim.

No man who expects to qualify in the race of life can afford to neglect himself physically. Regular systematic exercise and recreation will see him through.

The bowling alleys also opened up Oct. 2, and were kept busy all week. A committee to handle the league games and promote the sport generally was selected and the league schedule will begin Monday night, Oct. 9, 8:00.

EDITORIAL

While we have no doubt but what the salary increases made by the aldermen on Monday evening are fully deserved, and we especially approve that given the Sealer of Weights and Measures, yet, we do not believe that this is the proper time to make any increases in any of the routine appropriations for city expenses. To do so violates the fundamental idea of the budget system, which is based on the assumption that ALL the routine expenses of the city are considered at one time and in comparison with each other.

When we note how easily an appropriation for $13,300 for the collection of garbage for three months, slips thru the board of aldermen, we wonder how ex-Aldermen Justin A. McCarthy and Percy M. Blake must feel after their strenuous efforts in former days to prevent an appropriation of $12,000 being made for the entire year. A proposed bill of $52,000 for collecting garbage for the coming year certainly ought to have the most careful investigation.

We recall that bids for the construction of new school houses in pre-war days were carefully scrutinized by each member of the board of aldermen, but now it is apparently the custom to act on a two hundred thousand dollar school house at a recess meeting of a half hour or so of committee and then have the full board pass the order without a word of debate or explanation.

The appropriation to provide a parking space on Washington street, west of Centre place at Newton is an absolute waste of the public money. The parking space is not needed and even if it was needed, this location is too far away from the business centres to be of any actual value.

With the present agitation in Auburndale over the proposed licensing of the Castle Inn it is a good time to emphasize the fact that a zoning ordinance would protect the residents of this city (in single family districts) far better than any method of licensing.

Newton is indeed honored by President Harding in the appointment of former Representative James A. Lowell of this city to be a Federal Judge. Mr. Lowell is amply qualified to fill the position and will bring both ability and dignity to the bench.

LIQUOR RAID

Sergeant Leehan and Patrolmen Dungan, Loughlin and Murphy raided the shoe-repairing shop of Joe Concialdi on Centre street, Newton, last Friday night, and a large crowd gathered to witness such an unusual sight in Nonantum square. A gallon of wine and some empty bottles were seized. Patrolman Dungan, dressed as a working man, drove up to the shop in an auto. He asked Concialdi for a pint, and the latter brought the moonshine out to the car. Dungan paid him $1.50 and left. An hour later Sergt. Leehan with his squad swooped down on the shop, and with a search warrant went through the place. Concialdi, charged with making an illegal sale of liquor was in court Saturday before Judge Bacon. He pleaded guilty and was fined $75.

SCHOOL NOTES

Stearns School

The enrollment this year is 867, including the seventh and eighth grades who are occupying the sloyd and cooking rooms and the hall. When they leave us, at the completion of the Junior High School building, we shall have 730 pupils. The 867 are divided as follows: Stearns, Main Building, 650; Portable 73; Elliot 144.

We are very appreciative of the efforts of the playground department in marking out playgrounds and equipping it with football uprights. Mr. Dacey is organizing class teams and hopes to arrange games with other schools.

A change in session has been made for the Junior High section of the school. Their hours are now from 8.30 to 12.30 daily.

Several teachers of the school, including Misses Munn, Trask, Winters, McLaughlin, with Miss Lewis of the Emerson School, Miss McPherson, the school nurse, and Mrs. Winslow are enjoying riding lessons under the tutelage of Mr. Winslow.

The Stearns School Centre and the Newton School Department (Americanization division) are co-operating in the effort to establish an Italian Mothers' Club in Nonantum.

Instruction in speaking and reading English is to be given, and aid in the use of paper patterns, or any puzzling home problem.

Mrs. Montclair of Newton has kindly volunteered to help make part of each meeting happy with games and other amusements.

This week Thursday the National Dairy Association is sending Miss Foster with lantern slides to give an instructive talk.

The meetings are to be held at the N. A. A. rooms through the courtesy of Mayor Childs.

The Mothers' Club held its first meeting at Stearns School Centre on Monday evening, October 2nd. Plans for the fall program were discussed, and after a short business meeting, an informal hour of games and music was enjoyed. Mrs. John Seaward presided, and Mrs. Wm. Cyr was in charge of the entertainment. The next meeting will be held on Monday, October 16, when new members will be welcomed in by the officers and the entertainment committee.

The first meeting of the Newton Girls Club was held Tuesday evening, Oct. 3rd, at Stearns School Centre. A reception to new members followed a short business meeting at which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. Registration for millinery and basketry was taken, and basket ball teams will be formed during October for practice and exhibition. November, Miss Lillian Swartz will be in charge of the year's athletic program, and Miss Myrtle Weldon will act as chairman of the entertainment committee.

Mason School

The teachers of the Mason School gave a farewell dinner to Miss Cecile C. Crandall, a teacher of the third grade on Tuesday of the present week at the Brunswick. A most enjoyable hour was spent.

Miss Crandall's place in the Mason is to be taken by Miss Nickson.

Mrs. Leary's room, fifth grade, are studying "Out of the Northland." On Friday last they had the pleasure of seeing some slides on Norway, kindly loaned by Mr. Albert E. Bailey.

Captain ball games are well under way at recess, and the girls are entering into the practice work with fine spirit.

Lasell

A group of girls enjoyed a ride through Residential Boston on Saturday afternoon.

Dr. George S. Butters was welcomed as an old friend by the "old girls" at Sunday evening vespers at which time he gave the address.

The girls are taking advantage of the fine fall weather by participating in outdoor sports—canoeing, tennis, field hockey and daily motor trips.

On Saturday of this week a large number of girls are looking forward to the annual Concord-Lexington trip.

Parties have been arranged for the Harvard-Oxford Debate on Monday night.

CITY HALL

Supt. of Playgrounds, Ernst Hermann and Chairman of the Playground Commission, William C. Brewer, leave tomorrow for Atlantic City, where they are to represent the city of Newton at the National Playground convention.

CHURCH FOR YOUNG PERSONS

Indianapolis Minister Successful in Operation of Branch for the Boys and Girls.

A junior church, the membership of which is limited to persons between six and sixteen years old, with the preacher the only adult present, is being successfully operated in Indianapolis. The plan was inaugurated by Rev. N. S. Slichterman of Grace Presbyterian church, that city.

According to Doctor Slichterman, there are 60 children ranging in age from six to sixteen years who are members of the junior organization. They have their own room for services, which are of 30 minutes' duration, and have their own officers. The plan was put into operation in January and Doctor Slichterman is so pleased with the results that he expects soon to double the membership.

Doctor Slichterman said the idea of forming a junior church developed from his experience in church while a boy.

"My people came from Holland and settled in a neighborhood of Hollanders in a small Michigan town," he said. "The church I attended as a boy also used the Dutch language and the sermons sometimes lasted two hours, or more. I well remember how tired and restless I would get as the time dragged on, for the sermon, while appealing to adults, was not such as would appeal to the child."

"It was this experience which gave birth to the junior church idea, and last January I started the organization."

CAN GROW NEW TUSK IN YEAR

Discovery Is Made That the Walrus May Prolong World's Vanishing Supply of Ivory.

A remarkable discovery at the seal rookeries on Pribilof islands may prolong the world's vanishing ivory supply.

Last summer an obnoxious bull walrus was mauled by government seal keepers, and in the fight one of its long tusks was broken off. This spring the same recalcitrant mammal returned, and to the surprise of both natives and attendants the tusk had grown out five inches, the end still showing the ragged edge of the break.

It is now believed that an annual crop of this excellent ivory can be harvested by cutting off one-half of one tusk each year from the bull walrus. The one left intact is used by the mammal in digging clams and sea food. In a year the stub would have grown out enough to serve as a pickaxe, so the other tusk could be sacrificed for the fancies of man.

Walrus ivory is in great demand in China and Japan, where it is utilized for small carvings.

Graphite and Siberia.

Extensive deposits of graphite exist in northwestern Siberia, on the left bank of the River Kureika, near the junction with the River Yenisei, 90 miles from the mouth of the latter river. The graphite area forms a horizontal plateau, the elevation of which varies from 20 to 50 feet above the normal level of the River Kureika. The plateau contains two layers of graphite, which is of a solid steel-gray color, soft and of an excellent quality for the manufacture of pencils. It is believed that in the future these graphite will supply Russian demands and that large quantities will be available for export. The chief sources of graphite have been Ceylon, Bohemia, Germany, France and the United States. The annual world production has been approximately 120,000 short tons.

The Modern Girl.

If the modern girl is freer than her predecessor, she is, like her brother, more self-possessed. Her range of experience and of information is wider and her desire to know greater. She has seen more of the world and heard more of it, if not directly, then by the vicarious efforts of scores of agencies. She has no doubt broken through many irrational taboos, but she is trying hard to replace them with standards more suitable to the complexities of life in this generation. And if it is put to a male vote whether she is to return to the dress, manners, temperament and mental outlook of her eighteenth or even nineteenth century ancestor, there will only be an insignificant minority to vote against her as she is.—Baltimore American.

Father Love vs. Mother's.

Among some fishes the male assumes all the care and anxiety of parenthood. And this is true of at least one or two families of birds. The male ostrich hatches the eggs and looks after the little ones. The greatest enemy of the eggs and young of the stickleback fish is the mother herself. She not only has no affection for them whatever, but would eat every one of them if she weren't prevented from doing so by the father. In very few species of fish do the females care anything for either the eggs or the young.

Among fishes, therefore, the instinct to save the young is not the wonderful mother instinct found in the human or other higher species, but the father instinct—Detroit News.

CALL ON U. S. FOR SUPPLIES

Various Countries Are Asking Uncle Sam to Provide All Sorts of Merchandise.

Have you any chrysoprase or variscite to sell? If so, write the Department of Commerce, foreign trade division. Dr. Julius Klein, the director, has requests for 'em on his desk from Australia. If you don't know what they are, they are precious stones.

Our South American neighbors in Brazil are more prosaic in their wants. They are asking for sanitary drinking fountains.

Canada wants moving-picture machines and wireless telephone sets.

With the Volstead act putting a crimp in the business over here, anybody with a left-over stock of bungs and bung pegs can find a ready market for them in England. The British also want garbage cans.

Ditto above. The French are asking for oak casks.

Ditto again. Chile asks for corks. The prohibition bureau, with an eye to business, might fill the order from Mexico for alcohol distilling plants by shipping down some of the wildest stills seized over the country.

Evidently all the Italian boot-blacks are not over here. There's a request from Italy for shoe polish.

Musical instruments are in demand in Palestine and Spain.

The canny Scots want calculating machines.

Poor old Siberia would like a square meal of dried fruits and vegetables and prepared milk.

RACED LIKE THE GREYHOUND

Botafogo, Most Famous Horse of Argentina, Was Known to Turf Followers Throughout World.

The most famous race horse that the fine studs of Argentina ever bred was probably Botafogo, for he was renowned among turf followers the world over. He died near Mar del Plata a short time ago, being only eight years old. Not particularly fortunate in his parentage, as great racers usually are, he nevertheless became a phenomenon of the track. At two years he sold for $25,000 at auction, although he was never good looking.

When he raced the horse stretched himself out like a greyhound. He made his debut in 1917, and all the classics fell before his amazing speed. One day when he was not in form and lost to Gray Fox the event was regarded in Argentina as quite a national catastrophe. In a subsequent "revenge race" he defeated his conqueror with perfect ease before the greatest crowd that ever assembled at the Palermo tracks.

Actor Who Could Not Write.

The true story of "Joe Miller's Joke Book," is an interesting bit of literary history. Truth is that Joe Miller never read a joke in his life, and therefore could not have compiled a book of jokes. For Joe Miller could not read. He was an ignorant actor, who achieved great success in 1714 at the Drury Lane theater in London. And the only way that Joe Miller could memorize the lines of his parts was to have them read and reread to him until he was able to repeat them, the duty of thus drumming dialogue and cues into the comedian's mind being entrusted to a wife, whom he had married for the purpose.

Off the stage or on, Miller was not a wit or humorist. But a year after his death a pamphlet appeared in which 247 jests were given, of which only three were ascribed to Joe Miller. They had been compiled by a man with the appropriate name of Motley. By the middle of the Nineteenth century the number of jokes had been increased by successive compilers to 1,546.

Power in Silence.

The proper value of the power of silence is probably best expressed in the scriptural reference to the various convulsions of nature, the wind and the earthquake, followed by the still, small voice. Coming down to a more recent period and a less renowned authority, we are reminded of the man who advised his son to keep his mouth shut so that people would not know he was a fool. This advice is still good for the great majority. Astronomy is said to be one of the best means of teaching the individual his relative unimportance in the universe of matter, but to be left alone, far from any human habitation, in a vast silence will probably accomplish the same.

Employer Paid for Nut.

A curious point in workmen's compensation has been settled by the English Court of Appeal. A collier, who did not drink or smoke, was in the habit of carrying a nut in his mouth, apparently for much the same reason that some people carry chewing gum. One day while at work he slipped and fell; and the nut was jerked down his windpipe suffocating him. The court held that the accident was "in the course of his employment," and entitled his widow to recover.

Poor Mule!

"That," said the city man, "is what I call downright brutality. That man ought to be reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals."

"Why? What's he doing?"

"What's he doing? Can't you see how fast that mule has to walk to keep out of his way when he's pushing the plow?"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

P., celebrated its 40th anniversary Wednesday evening with a banquet at the Newton Catholic Club which was attended by nearly 300 people. Chief Ranger Martin Kenney presided and the toastmaster was Joseph J. Curran. The speakers were Judge Joseph A. Sheehan and Peter Welch of the high standing committee. Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Rev. William T. A. O'Brien, chaplain of the court, and Deputy High Chief Ranger John King of Brookline. The banquet was arranged by a committee headed by Past Chief Rangers David Kerr and Jeremiah Ford, Chief Ranger-Elect Timothy Connell and Chief Ranger Kenney. Thirteen of the surviving charter members of the court, John Gaw, James McEnaney and James R. Gaw, attended the banquet and were given an ovation when they were presented to the gathering.

SANDY BURR COUNTRY CLUB

One of the most successful tournaments on a temporary course occurred at Sandy Burr C. C. last Saturday. About 100 entries took part. Mr. E. B. Stratton captured second net with 73.

The occasion was the seeding of the first nine holes of the Donald Ross layout. In the afternoon an aviation exhibition was held and in the evening dancing and music enlivened the occasion.

Among the hostesses for the day and evening were the following Newton women: Mrs. A. Dudley Dawd, Mrs. Paul Burrage, Mrs. Augustus E. White, and Mrs. E. B. Stratton.

Experts agree that when completed the course with its 27 holes will be one of the finest in the East and the membership quota is nearing completion.

On Saturday the Club Championship will be played off by members. The qualifying round will admit the 16 best scores to Match Play. The Club Champion will be awarded a suitable medal with the Club insignia which will be presented at a club banquet to be held about Thanksgiving time.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

Greetings and best wishes for the most successful season yet attained, to all the clubs and club workers of the Newton.

Club correspondents help to make this department more useful to your clubs by sending announcements of prospective meetings and "after-stories" of meetings that have more than usual significance, so that they may be received Wednesday night, or by special arrangement, Thursday morning. Address the Club Editor at 94 Charlesbank road, Newton, or consult her by telephone, Newton North 1370-M. A few moments' talk will often clear up matters and bring about more satisfactory notices. To serve the clubs has always been the aim of this department and will continue to be so long as it exists.

The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs has embarked upon a new project which bids fair to further club and Federation work in a way hitherto impossible, namely, the opening of Headquarters. A modest room at 585 Boylston street, looking out upon Copley Square, has been secured for the purpose. It is simply but tastefully furnished with desk, chairs, and filing cabinet, as well as telephone. For the present some officer will be on duty during each forenoon from 10 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. Mrs.
Poole will be there on Mondays; Mrs.
Dodge, the corresponding secretary, on Fridays; Mrs. Hood, vice president,
Oct. 7 and 14; Mrs. Frederick G.
Smith, first vice president, Oct. 21 and 28. Copies of all committee literature will be on file. Club workers may consult Federation workers upon club problems in an informal way which will be of great help. Committee meetings will be held there, but the regular meetings of the Council and of the Executive Board will be held at Hotel
Vendome, as formerly.

State Federation

Friday, October 13, 10 A. M. Hotel
Vendome, Boston. Luncheon-Conference of the Public Health department.
Dr. Benjamin White, director of the Division of Biological Laboratories, State Department of Health, will present "Modern Methods for the Prevention of Diphtheria"; Dr. George K.
Pratt, "The Relation of Mental Hygiene to Public Health"; Dr. Robert W. Lovett, "Infantile Paralysis from the Point of View of a Public Problem." Tickets at $1.50 should be ordered before October 10, by sending self-addressed stamped envelope and check to Mrs. S. H. Remick, 30 Middlesex avenue, Reading.

Professional Women's Club

Tuesday, October 10, at the Copley-Plaza will be held the first meeting of the season. Laura Huxtable Porter will present a program of "Parallelisms in Poetry and Music." Laura C.
Thompson will sing, with Minnie Stratton Watson as accompanist. Guests may be admitted at four o'clock.

Local Announcements

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands will open its season's work on October 9, at the home of Mrs. F. A.
O'Connor, 44 Erie avenue. The afternoon will be spent in the consideration of the times, Mrs. G. W. Barker and Mrs. Simpson being in charge.

On Monday afternoon the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will hold its second meeting of the year with Mrs. H.
A. Miller, 85 Erie avenue. The study of the "Bible in the Scutcheon," by Robert Brownings will be continued under the leadership of Miss Anna S. Thompson.

"Movements of the Seventeenth Century will be the subject of study for the Christian Era Study Club during the coming season.
Next Monday the club begins with England when Mrs. S. W. Dike, who is the hostess of the afternoon, will give a paper on Charles II. Mrs. Harry D. Perkins takes up the Habeas Corpus Act, and Miss Hall, James II.

Beginning the season's club activities with a day spent out of doors, the Auburndale Woman's Club will hold the meeting of October 10, in Norum-bega Park. Club membership tickets will admit members to the Park if presented at the Tanglewood Gate opposite Woodbine street. Members may bring their daughters as guests of the club. Other guests will be admitted by the usual guest card. The business meeting will be called promptly at 11 o'clock, to be followed by a box luncheon. Ice cream will be served by the Hospitality committee, and hot coffee may be purchased if desired. At 2:30 the President's report of the Biennial at Chautauqua will be given, and at 3 there will be a demonstration by the Girl Scouts, with an interesting account of their work. The management of the park, as well as the Program and Hospitality committees of the club are planning to make this first out-of door meeting enjoyable and well worth attending. Should the weather prove unfavorable, the program as arranged will be carried out in the restaurant building.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club meets for the first time this season on Friday, October 13, in Players' Small Hall. The program is in charge of the Home Economics committee, Mrs. Gwendolen O'Neill, chairman. The speaker is Miss Esther Akin and her subject, "Polychroming the Frame." There will be music and a tea.

Local Happenings

At the home of Mrs. H. L. Felton of Chestnut street, West Newton, the Newton Mothers' Club opened its season under exceedingly pleasant conditions with the new Mothers' Council as guests of the club. Rev. J. Edgar Park gave an inspiring address upon "The New Psychology in the Home," in which he emphasized particularly the need of the cheerful outlook. Miss

Adams sang two songs very charmingly. A social hour with tea closed a delightful afternoon. Acting with Mrs. Felton as hostesses were: Mrs.
Philip Carter, Mrs. Arthur Dunmore,
Mrs. W. E. Crosby, Mrs. J. N. Eaton,
Mrs. E. S. Gile, and Mrs. W. L. Garrison, Jr.

The first meeting of the Auburndale Review Club for 1922-23 gave promise of a most interesting year. Held at the home of Mrs. Thomas B. Scott, 199 Hancock street, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Samuel W. Dike as chairman for the morning. Her most vivid account of John Burroughs was followed by some nature songs, delightfully sung by Mrs. Ruggles, a former member of the club. Miss Williams gave the second delightful paper, one on Luther Burbank, and the regular program was concluded by another group of songs by Mrs. Ruggles.

At 12 o'clock a luncheon, carrying out the nature idea, was served by the Program Committee with several other club members as hostesses in charge of tables. All voted the meeting a great success.

A WARNING

A man who would not take his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by a neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a hive of bees and in ten minutes he looked like a warty squash. His cries reached his father who ran to his assistance, falling to note a barbed wire fence, which he ran into, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy, and ruining a $5 pair of pants. The cow puncher, in the gap in the fence and got into the corral. Hearing the racket, his wife ran out, upsetting a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens and drowned them.
In her haste she lost a $17 set of teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the cream into the parlor and ruined a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement, the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven settings of eggs and the calves chewed the tails off four nightshirts. Cheaper by far to have the paper delivered, says a South Dakota newspaper.—Pacific Herald, Waldport, Ore.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

The new officers of Newton Council
K. of C. were installed on Tuesday night by D. D. John J. Cronin. They included Henry J. Kinchla, grand knights; Daniel Hannigan, deputy

W. Linehan, treasurer; William J.
Greagan, advocate; Edward C. White, side guard, and John Barwise, lecturer.

The exercises included speaking by William C. Prout, State Deputy; Edward J. Brandon, state treasurer, and Judge William R. Day. There was an interesting entertainment consisting of the Garden City trio, Johnny Lane, the Y.D. entertainer, and John Higgins in impersonations and dancing.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

A school football team has been formed with William Murphy as captain and Melvin Chambers as manager. A game was played with the Mason school team on Tuesday resulting in a victory for the Mason team.
Current events clubs are organized in two grades, seven and eight. There are 72 subscribers to the school paper
"Current Events."

The Nutrition Class has been reorganized. There are 30 members and they meet regularly on Tuesday afternoons. Miss Melick continues to be the instructor.

Miss Nickelson's class is the third one to get 100 in attendance for a whole week. This attainment is to be marked hereafter with a gold star instead of the usual red one.

The school bank re-opened on the second Monday of the year. Business is good.

A health campaign, especially in the direction of clean teeth, is in full swing. The classes of Miss Horgan and Miss Nickelson had five star days during last week.

Thomas McDaniels of the graduating class, read a poem "For Today," in the hall at the assembly on Monday morning.

Albert Edgar Angier School

Class officers in grades six, seven, and eight have been elected as follows: In grade six, Charles Leach, president; Richard Robbins, vice president; Rena Spain, secretary; Kenneth Cady, treasurer. In grade seven, Muriel Andrews, president; Norman Lockwood, vice president; May Gould, secretary; Alfred Brown, treasurer. In grade eight, Frank Spain, president;
Roger Haddock, vice president; Ethel Richards, secretary; and Donald Charlton, treasurer.

Miss Jane M. Wyman, our second grade teacher, is the author of several exceptionally fine articles that have appeared during the past two years in such educational journals as "Primary Education" and "The Kindergarten and First Grade." Published articles include "A Good Health Play" in the October, 1922, issue of "The Kindergarten and First Grade;" "An Individual Method of Teaching Arithmetic to a Second Grade;" "A Newspaper Project," "Poster Projects," "A Store Project," and "Ways to Ride," in various issues of "Primary Education" and "A Clock Store Project" in "The Kindergarten and First Grade."

Mr. Thomas J. Klockner, for nineteen years custodian of the Waban School, has resigned to take effect October 21st. He has always assumed a paternal care over the children of the school and has been a source of constant joy to them during these many years. His genial smile about the building will be greatly missed. The resignation was entirely voluntary, and comes as a result of the heavy burdens to be assumed by the custodian of a large building such as the Angier, which Mr. Klockner feels he cannot carry.

The Angier School football team, coached by Donald Houghton, has played three games this year, one ending in a tie and two in victories. Newton Highlands was defeated last Saturday and Troop 7 Boy Scouts of West Newton was defeated Tuesday afternoon. The Angier School football team never looked better than at the present time under Frank Spain as Captain.

Hyde School

Mr. Miller, principal of the school, gave a brief talk to the eight grades on the subject of loyalty. He plans to have these talks at various ethical subjects at frequent intervals.

Our children need no longer go to Newton Centre to open accounts. Beginning to-day a representative of the Newton Centre Savings Bank will take on Friday of every week all the cards having one dollar or more in savings and bring back the deposit books on the following Tuesday.

Broad, white lines have been ascribed on Lincoln street opposite the entrance of the school buildings. The children have been asked to observe traffic regulations and to promote the public safety by keeping within these lines.

The First Congregational Church of Newton Highlands is to give a reception to the teachers of the Hyde school on Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, at the church. This gives a fine opportunity for parents and teachers to meet.

The Newton Music School opened yesterday, and plans to organize a school orchestra as it did last year.
The usual "try-out" will be held and as many children as possible will be given places.

An interscholastic captain-ball team has been formed under the direction of Miss Jeffers and Miss Hanscom.
They will play against the eight grade teams at the Burr, the Angier, and the Emerson.

On Thursday, the teachers of the Hyde school thoroughly enjoyed a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scheib in Lexington. Mrs. Scheib was formerly Miss Emily Titus, kinder-gartner at Newton Highlands. The afternoon was spent in strolling about the beautiful estate, bowling on the green, and dancing in the spacious parlor. In the evening a delicious dinner was served to the eighteen guests. Then, gathering around the fireplace, they listened to a story, cleverly told by Miss Grace Perkins, and to delightful accounts by the host and hostess of their recent trips to Florida and to Maine.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN NURSE

Miss Araminta Wetmore, for the past twenty-two years, a well known nurse in this city, died last Friday at the Newton Hospital after an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Wetmore was 49 years of age and was the daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Wetmore of Clifton, New Brunswick. She graduated from the Training School for Nurses at the Newton Hospital 22 years ago and since that time has been employed in her profession in this city, making her home with Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Withee of Forest street, Newton Highlands.

LADY ASTOR ON DRINK

In "The Nineteenth Century," Lady Nancy Astor discusses the drink problem in terms both of England and America. She declares she does not advocate a prohibition act for England, that English public opinion is not prepared for it. But she also says that on the other hand "it is surely a counsel of despair to sit with folded hands and wait for weak-willed citizens to be eliminated by a process of eugenics." Lady Astor offers this remark, which is pertinent surely to conditions on both sides of the ocean: "As an industrial nation, dependent on foreign export trade, we simply cannot afford either the inefficiency, loss of time and slackness caused by drink, or the high taxation (and so increased cost of production) due to our having to spend so much on the victims of alcohol in prisons, police courts, infirmaries, hospitals, work houses, etc."

But her most interesting comments have to do with what she describes as an organized undertaking in Great Britain to belittle prohibition in the United States. She says: "Ever since America went dry the British liquor trade has, for self-interest and as a method of discrediting the trade, carried on an organized campaign to create prejudice against America. It has minimized America's war effort and misrepresented her peace aims. Quite recently a leading brewer made the most disparaging remarks at a public banquet about America. When his profit is threatened the trade does not hesitate to take up an anti-national policy. Private interest in stimulating the greatest consumption of intoxicants cannot be reconciled with clean politics, with the national interest, or with international undertaking."

And for Lady Astor's final sentence many fair-minded Americans will feel grateful whatever their views as to the merits of American prohibition. "It is not only American cranks, as the trade so cleverly tries to suggest, who are acting, but it is the most progressive, democratic and liberty-loving members of the English-speaking race."

NEWTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The membership of the Newton Chamber of Commerce has been materially increased during the summer months and is to be further developed along consistent and systematic lines during the remainder of the year. At the present time about 25 or more new members are being added to the Chamber each week, and the total reached at the middle of the present week was 873.

Of the eleven so-called villages of Newton, Waban heads the list in regard to total representation in the Chamber membership with 176. Newton is next in line with 172, while Newtonville occupies third place with 142. Newton Centre has recently passed the hundred mark and now has 101 to its credit, while West Newton follows with 82 and Newton Highlands has 66.

Interested members of the Chamber recently developed a consistent membership eort in the Chestnut Hill section which has heretofore been represented by a small group. This has already been increased to 58, and present indications are that this number will be doubled in the immediate future. A similar effort is being contemplated in Auburndale which now has 34 members. The membership campaign of last spring secured 24 members in the Nonantum district, while Newton Upper Falls has nine members, there are 5 in Newton Lower Falls, and 4 non-resident members increase the total to 873. It is the intention of the officers and directors of the Chamber to increase this total to more than a thousand before the end of the present year, while it is not an ultimate total of 2,000 will be none too large for the city of Newton. The co-operation and membership of any public spirited citizen of Newton will be welcomed by the Chamber at any time.

Plans are being gradually developed which promise a busy season for the Chamber, beginning with the present month. The Chamber has been active during the summer and the committee on street railway service already has several substantial accomplishments to its credit. One new committee, on insurance, was organized during the summer and includes Clinton N. Scoville, chairman; Herbert M. Cole, Herbert W. Colby, Sam T. Emery, and Arthur W. Hollis. This committee has already arranged for a re-inspection of conditions in Newton by representatives of the New England Insurance Exchange, with regard to increased fire protection since the last inspection by the Exchange and with a view of securing a reduction in fire insurance rates. Other committees, authorized late last season, are to be appointed in the immediate future and an effort made to have each begin to function early in the season. Various purposes and objectives of the Chamber, as outlined in its "Program of Work," are being given consideration by the directors and taken up, one by one during the season, either through that board or by reference to special committees. With a rapidly growing membership that is becoming more and more representative each day, it is felt that sentiment in favor of some of these objectives may be organized and made more effective this season than has been possible with the former limited membership, which was less than half as large at the close of last season than at the present time.

The board of directors of the Chamber will hold its first meeting since the vacation season on next Monday evening, when the future work of the Chamber will be carefully considered and planned out. At this meeting plans will be made for the October meeting of the Chamber, and consideration given to the remainder of the season. With its greatly increased membership, a corresponding increase in the attendance at the Chamber meetings is anticipated for the coming season and every effort is to be put forth to arrange programs that will not only aid in developing the work of the Chamber but will also prove interesting and worth while to members.

A staff of 75 people was necessary to handle the flood of letters from readers to the Boston Post, in connection with its "Every reader a reporter" feature in which it has been awarding a Ford each day for the most interesting item submitted.

To insure that its contest was fair, the Post engaged Price, Waterhouse & Co., accountants, to report. This concern found that, up to the time of its report, 388,769 pieces of mail had been passed upon, an average of 7,623 letters a day, with an average working force of 27 people. At one time 45 people were necessary, although at the start four employees handled the mail.

"The daily winner is determined by a process of elimination," the auditors state. "The first reading of the articles results in the rejection of all but about 1,000 daily. These in turn are reduced to 250 by a second group of experienced Post employees. This remainder is further reduced to from 50 to 75 by the Ford-a-day man in charge. The final lot is submitted to the managing editor, who decides the daily winner. The fact that many members are in isolated localities would indicate that the awards are based purely on merit."

"The regular prize of a fully equipped Ford touring car with self starter and demountable rim has been paid, the minimum prize being $499. We have reports on file of stories being investigated and in most instances the winning story is one that has been personally investigated. Many stories are rejected as a result of being investigated."

CITY HALL

The Buildings Commissioner reports a total of 113 building permits issued during September with a total valuation of $396,110. Of these figures, 29 are for single dwellings valued at $247,500. This makes the total for the year of 952 permits granted valued at $5,007,372.

IMPRESSIONS OF EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rust of Highland avenue, spent a few weeks this summer in Europe. They motored from Cologne through Bonn to Coblenz. Here they were the guests of Mr. James Springer formerly of Newtonville, chief secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Rust was impressed with the way in which the whole town including many of the most attractive residences was given over to the soldiers and the courtesy with which they were received. She had the opportunity of seeing the interior of Ehrenbreitstein which fortress together with others in the vicinity, is being blown up by the order of the French government.

One of the strongest impressions which Germany makes upon her visitors is the wonderful way in which they conserve their land. Forests, for example are regularly pruned, dead wood etc, being removed. All fruit trees in Germany along the Government and are auctioned off on a certain day. The grapes, too, are all gathered on a certain day.

A trip from Bruges, Belgium, to Ypres was very sad. Especially striking was the way in which the beautiful trees of Bruges come suddenly to an end as one approaches the battle field.

All along the highways of Belgium one saw peasants riding bicycles, often shining and new, wearing wooden shoes or felt slippers and no stockings, the latter articles being very difficult to obtain.

From Munich to Paris by motor was another wonderful trip.

In the vicinity of Verdun, Mr. Rust picked up a hand grenade which had not exploded. He put it down again with the greatest care, as explosions are frequent in this region.

One of the most tragic sights in Europe was the Trench of the Bayonets near Verdun, where the bodies of those who fell were buried in the trench the bayonets remaining sticking up over the top just as when the brave soldier held it. The trench was filled with these mute testimonies of the bravery of the French.

A more pleasant impression was a visit to a typical English country home, "The Knoll," not far from Winchester. Here one saw the beautiful English country stretching away on every side, kept with the scrupulous care which every Englishman bestows on the land he it a tiny garden or rolling acres.

In this country house there was a window through which Queen Anne used to gaze when in the 18th century she was one of its distinguished guests.

HOLLIS ST. THEATRE—What is regarded as one of the most delightful and entertaining comedies seen in Boston for many seasons is "Nice People," starring Francine Larrimore, which is now in its third week at the Hollis Street Theatre, Boston, where it is repeating the phenomenal success it enjoyed in New York and later in Chicago.

This delightful comedy from the pen of Rachel Crothers is written in her best vein, and is an arraignment of the carelessness of the so-called "smart set," who allow their daughters to smoke, drink cocktails, and dance all night at cabarets without chaperones.

Miss Larrimore has proved one of the daintiest, brightest little comedienne that Boston has seen in a generation. What is more, the young lady can act. She is an artist, finished to the tips of her dainty fingers.

"pull the boners" in the early season to save them for the Suburban race. The Newton offense may not have seemed remarkably powerful judging by the size of the scores, but we maintain that had Coach Dickinson so desired his team could have made four or five touchdowns. But Dickinson is a real football coach and knows exactly what he wants his team to do at a certain time. And those 13 points were just as satisfying to him as a much higher total would have been. Large scores are no criterion of the true strength of a football team.

Everett will play at Clifton Field on the afternoon of Columbus Day. This game was originally listed for the morning but Everett insists it be played in the afternoon. For years the Columbus Day game has been played in the morning and we can remember first even before Newton entered the Suburban League, Boston Latin was Newton's opponent in the holiday game which always took place at 10 A. M. Just why Everett objects to the morning game is hard to understand.

But morning or afternoon the game is going to be well worth watching. Everett has a better team this season than it has had for years and the Red and Blue gained much valuable experience in their opening encounters with such strong teams as St. John's Prep and Brookline High. Everett has a new coach in the person of George Brickley, brother of the famous Charlie, and the people of Everett are behind the team and its coach to a man. For weeks Everett has been looking forward to the Newton game and Capt. Bond's men have their hearts set on giving Newton its first Suburban defeat since 1919.

Newton should find plenty of opposition in the Everett game but we believe the Orange and Black holds the better cards. The score will not be a large one and we don't think Newton will be scored upon. All of which does not mean that Newton can play second class football and win. The 1922 Everett team knows how to take advantage of the breaks and it is by the breaks that Everett expects to conquer.

Last Saturday proved disastrous for four Suburban teams. Brookline went down under a 27-0 shower at Haverhill. Rindge Tech. lost to Salem 19-7. Lawrence beat Somerville 7-3, and Cushing Academy downed Cambridge Latin 7-0. Malden High beat the fast B. C. High eleven 10 to 0 and Medford had no trouble defeating New Bedford 14-0.

Tomorrow finds Cambridge Latin going up to play St. James High and Malden traveling the same way to meet Haverhill. Malden held Haverhill to a tie score last year and while we expect the 1921 runners up to press Haverhill we hardly look to see them win. Cambridge Latin is bound to find the going tough against St. James' High. The prospect school boys understand Carroll know football and among the best gridiron teams of New England. However, we believe Cambridge is more likely to defeat St. James than Malden is to beat Haverhill. A defeat of both Suburban League teams, while it will be disappointing, will not cause us more than an ordinary surprise. Haverhill and St. James High have spent the past week in special training camps outside the city and are looking forward to tomorrow's games as all-important. The city of Haverhill is actually wild with enthusiasm and will be out en masse to support both teams.

Before closing the column for this week we should like to take a knock or two at the Newton cheering section. We don't know just what plans have been made for the cheering this season but we are going to listen with much interest next Thursday afternoon. In past years the girls of the High School have given 75% of the Newton cheering. Take the girls out of the Newton cheering section and the cheering would sound like the meow of a kitten in a dog kennel. The Newton fellows make up the dumbest cheering section in the Suburban League. A number of them are ace high when it comes to solo work and delight in getting off free cracks with the purpose of gaining a laugh from the spectators. Certainly, if there is any joke they are it. The girls cheer when at the leader's request, and they cheer well and what is most important they cheer together. Unless the fellows get together and do likewise it would be best for the girls to have their own cheering section and do the cheering alone.

It is also about time for Newton to get hold of a few real cheers. Such yells as, "Oh Me, Oh My, Oh Mamma!" are just too sweet for anything and must put oodles of pep into the boys on the field. Yes, get a real cheering section and a few real cheers and Newton's position as the best sporting city in the Suburban League will then be unquestioned.

FOGG-THOMAS

A late September wedding of interest to Boston and the Newtons was that of Miss Irene I. Fogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Fogg of Waban, Mass., and Mr. Frederick Clifton Thomas of Burlington, Vermont.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Calkins.

The bride, who is greatly admired for her beauty and personal charm, is an alumna of Wellesley College and since her graduation has achieved considerable reputation as a soprano soloist.

After an extended tour, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will reside in Essex Junction, Vermont, and will be at home after October 15.

A SCORELESS TIE

Newton and Everett in Football Battle Before 6000 Spectators

Newton and Everett battled to a scoreless tie at Clafin Field yesterday afternoon. Six thousand spectators literally overflowed the Lowell avenue field to watch the two undefeated suburban teams fight it out.

For four periods each team tried every available means to cross its opponents' goal line but neither Newton or Everett had the punch necessary to settle the contest. The Everett offense was the better and while Coach Brickley's men never could get very close to the Newton goal line they were continually threatening. The short passes which Everett tossed over the center of the line completely "froze" the Newton secondary defense. The backfield work of Taylor and Capt. Bond was the best we have seen in a visiting team offer on Clafin Field for some time.

Newton never really got going. The team was uncertain of its plays and suffered several heavy penalties. Newton received the one star break on the game when in the first period Taylor dropped a punt which Newton recovered on the Everett 10-yard line. But the Newton backs were smothered by the Red and Blue linemen and the home team's chance for victory faded. In the final period McQuiston made a couple of long end runs which brought the ball to Everett's 20-yard line. Here the Newton field generalship went astray, for with the time about up, they failed to let O'Donnell try the drop kick which might have won the game.

The game was a good one to watch and the school band which Everett brought with them was a good one to hear. The cheering of both schools was excellent although the practice of cheering when a penalty is inflicted should be frowned upon.

This column is being written before the Everett game. Elsewhere in this issue you will find a brief account of the game which took place yesterday afternoon. We should like to have dwelt at greater length on the contest but the news press cannot wait and our copy must be in on time.

When the Suburban League opened its season yesterday there were but two League teams which had not met defeat. These two were yesterday's opponents, Newton and Everett, and of the two Newton alone could claim its early season games as complete victories. Everett had played tie games with St. John's Prep and Brockton and had defeated Worcester Commerce by a single touchdown. Newton had defeated Quincy and Dean 2nd by the same score 13-0. All other Suburban eleven had been beaten by teams outside of the League.

It is not an easy matter to write definitely at a time when we do not know the result of the Everett game. At present, however, it strikes us that the Newton defense is as strong as ever and that the offense has yet to prove itself equal to that of the last two years. Coach Dickinson is not driving his men and is permitting them to develop in a way which has always proved best in the long run. It is a constant development which will not reach its pinnacle until November.

Newton's next game does not take place until Saturday, October 21, when Somerville comes to Clafin Field. This will give Coach Dickinson plenty

CLAFIN GUARD VETERANS

The annual meetings of the Clafin Guard Veterans Association are always interesting and that held on Tuesday night at the Brae Burn Country Club, was no exception.

At a brief business meeting which preceded the banquet, these officers were elected: president, Lawrence Bond; vice-pres., Wendell W. Patten; junior vice president, Robert C. Bridgman; secretary, Major Fred P. Barnes, and F. L. G. Henderson, treasurer.

After an excellent menu had been discussed, president Walter H. Stearns presented Judge William F. Bacon as toastmaster. The judge was most happy in his introductions of the various speakers. The first introduced was Mayor Edwin O. Childs, who brought the greetings of the city and said he was glad to be associated with men who stand for good citizenship.

Attorney J. Weston Allen was received with great enthusiasm. He gave an interesting account of some of the incidents, humorous and otherwise which had come to him as Attorney General, and said he would leave the office with a deep sense of appreciation for the privilege of serving the Commonwealth under unusual conditions.

General Mark L. Hersey, who had just been made an honorary member of the Association, told of the new development in military organization—the organized reserve which will keep 900 officers in training in the 94th division alone. These men are representative men in the communities in which they live and there will be no misfits in the organization. General Hersey quoted Prof. Albert B. Hart of Harvard as predicting another world war within 5 years and the General said the present was not the time to turn our sabres into plowshares.

Colonel Albert F. Foote, commissioner of Public Safety, gave a long and interesting account of the work of his department with special refer-

GOLDEN WEDDINGS

Two golden weddings in one week is something of an event for this community and we are glad to make a record of them.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Barnes of Playstead road, Newton, entertained a group of relatives and intimate friends in recognition of the half century anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes were married in Melrose October 7th, 1872, and gave a dinner on Saturday evening last to mark their golden anniversary.

The long table looked most attractive with bowls of yellow roses and other decorations suitable to the occasion.

Rev. N. A. Merritt, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, pronounced the blessing.

Rev. Charles L. Page of Boston was toastmaster and read numerous letters which had been sent to him for that purpose, and then presented Mr. and Mrs. Barnes with a silver tea service in behalf of the officers and directors of the Mass. Baptist Charitable Society of which Mr. Barnes has been treasurer 28 years.

Mr. Eaton of Newton Highlands gave an interesting address and Mrs. Eaton as honorary President of the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club, brought greetings to Mrs. Barnes, who is an honorary member as well as a charter member of the club. Mr. Henry A. Bush of Melrose presented greetings of the Franklin Fraternity

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Board of Directors of the Newton Chamber held a well attended and interesting meeting at the Newton Club on Monday evening, First Vice-President Henry J. Nichols presiding, when 399 applications for membership were submitted by the secretary and approved by the Board. These new applications, with their acceptance, increased the total membership of the Chamber to 902. It is the plan of the membership committee to increase the membership to more than 1000 before the end of the present year.

Of those applications submitted on Monday evening, the largest number was from Waban, where intensive membership effort has been carried on during the summer just closed. Newton, Chestnut Hill, Newton Centre, and Newtonville were also well represented and these villages were closely bunched in the contest for second honors. The numbers submitted from the respective villages of the city were as follows: Waban 161, Newton 31, Chestnut Hill 50, Newton Centre 49, Newtonville 48, Auburndale 14, and West Newton 13, with the others five villages all represented by smaller groups.

The secretary submitted a report of the membership development, of the work accomplished during the summer by several committees, including those on street railway service and insurance, of the assistance rendered through the free employment bureau conducted by the Chamber, and dis-

THE GRANGE FAIR

Garden City Holds Unique Event at Newtonville

Saturday, Oct. 7th, 1922, the First Annual Fair of Garden City Grange was opened to the public at 2 P. M. although a very stormy day the Fair was well attended.

The main hall was used for the floral display and candy booth. There was a most excellent display of garden flowers, a remarkable showing for this time of year. A very large number of potted plants shown. The Floral Department was in charge of G. Howard Frost of Brae Burn Nurseries. Candy booth in charge of Mrs. Florence Hopwood. In the Banquet Hall was the Agricultural Department in charge of Wendell Smith, teacher of agriculture in the Newton Technical High. There was a large and interesting exhibit of vegetables and fruit. In the afternoon the boys of the school made tests of milk for butter fat and acidity of the soil. The splendid work of the boys was greatly appreciated and showed conclusively that the agricultural course in our schools created interest and efficiency in agricultural pursuits.

The display of Canned Goods was in charge of Mrs. Edwin Pitt. The large exhibit made a very interesting collection. The Home Cooking in charge of Mrs. John L. Sullivan was very pleasing to the eye and well patronized. The Fancy Work tables were in charge of Mrs. Robert C. Dinsmore and many pieces of fine work was one of the largest exhibits. The refreshments were taken care of by Mrs. M. W. Murray.

The Tonic and Ice Cream booth was in charge of George Hardy and Robert Dinsmore. In the Junior Department, in charge of Samuel Thurber, the boys and girls made a fine exhibit of Poultry, Pigeons, Rabbits, Guinea Pigs, Cats, and vegetables. A large and beautiful spread, made by the Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Grange was carried home by Samuel Thurber.

The disposal of the spread was looked after by Mrs. Charles H. Howard.

The Parkway Radio installed one of their 3-tube sets and furnished a fine concert during the day and evening. Congratulations were received by the Grange over the Radio from Amrad's WGI, Medford Hillside, and from the station at the Shepard Stores in Boston.

A fine stereopticon lecture on Health was given by one of the teachers. The Grange feels that its first attempt at planning a Fair was a great success although bad weather was somewhat of a handicap.

About 50 couples enjoyed the dancing from 8 to 11 in charge of John L. Sullivan.

As a result of the coal and railroad strikes, it is evident New England householders face a serious shortage of fuel during the coming winter. The gravity of the situation is not generally realized by the public.

Perfection Oil Heaters will be of the utmost help in overcoming the discomfort and inconveniences incident to this fuel shortage. We have ordered a large supply of heaters which we hope will take care of the demands of our customers.

It will be to your advantage, therefore, immediately to give most careful consideration to your heater requirements and place your order with us at once. Immediate attention to this matter is essential for the supply of heaters will of necessity be limited—we do not want our customers to suffer this winter for lack of heat.

 never ceasing until the electricity was ucts were constantly coming and going. Children were on their way to school and men and women on the road to their labors, traveling all day.

 This feature was not only interesting but instructive.

AUSTRALIAN SAYS DRY LAW IS SUCCESS IN UNITED STATES

"After three months of thorough investigation, I am convinced that probi-tion in the United States has succeeded. Moreover, I have collected facts and statistics, and direct testimony, which support this verdict, and which I believe will be accepted as conclusive by any fair-minded, impartial judge."

The result of this searching inquiry has just been made public in a 16-page pamphlet, entitled "Hold Fast America."

I cannot leave the subject of industrial conditions without touching on the opinions of the laboring men themselves. I know it is a general impression that most men who work with their hands are opposed to probi-tion. But, much to my surprise, this belief was not supported by interviews with these men. Most of the opposition one hears talked of comes from laborers of foreign birth, who resent being deprived of the wines and beers to which they have been accustomed all their lives.

James Duncan, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, in Seattle, Wash., is one of the labor leaders who stands ready to confirm his assertion. Mr. Duncan declares that Samuel Gompers, in his attitude opposing the Volstead law, does not represent the 3,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor, which he heads. If the prohibition question was put to a vote tomorrow, Mr. Duncan believes that it would receive a big majority vote from the laboring men of the country.

This statement is supported by a canvas of labor leaders in March, 1920, made by the Literary Digest.
 The results show that 345 leaders believed that prohibition was a benefit to the laboring man, 143 that it was no benefit, while 31 were doubtful, and seven said that prohibition had not been given a fair trial.

Sweden, said Miss Allen, possesses one of the most beautiful cities in the world, Stockholm, situated on sea and lake.

Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark, is of great literary historic, and artistic interest.

Travelling everywhere she found pleasant even in Germany. In regard to travel, Miss Allen considers it one of the greatest educational factors possible.

 htful pastime, when properly performed.

Some Things We Can Do

Our desire is to see how much—not how little—we can give our customers for their money.

Don't interpret this as a burst of philanthropy. It isn't. It's plain, common-sense business, because a satisfied customer is the best possible advertisement.

Every telephone becomes a part of the universal Bell System the moment it is installed. The service that may be afforded a patron, however, is largely dependent upon his knowledge of the telephone's varied possibilities. We can suggest some of these, leaving to him the privilege of availing himself of them.

Does he know how to make an Emergency Fire or Police Call?

Does he know what we are glad to do in the way of emergency installations in cases of quarantined illness?

Does he know the economics of Station-to-Station Calls as distinguished from other toll calls?

Does he know what we will do to help forward an urgent message relative to sickness or death?

Does he know we will try to get a message to a subscriber whose full address is unknown to him?

Does he know what our Public Station service can do in reaching non-subscribers by messenger?

If, perchance, the reader does not know of these and other possibilities,
 I wish he would pay me a visit. I may be able to make the telephone much more valuable to him, and perhaps without one cent of additional cost.

JOHN W. BYERS, Com'l. Manager.

GRADE TEACHERS

The Newton Grade Teachers Club held its first meeting for the season in the Clafin School Hall at three o'clock on October 5. The President, Miss Jane Stoddard, made a short address of welcome especially to the new teachers who have joined the ranks, and then placed the meeting in the hands of the Entertainment Committee, Miss Emily Childs, chairman. Group singing of several well-known songs proved a pleasant and informal way of mixing the teachers from the various sections of the city. This followed by a short sketch introducing a musical program, Miss Goodhue and Miss Pendleton, as college girls, invited some of their friends to their room to rehearse for a musicale. Those taking part were Miss Eleanor Burnham, violinist, and her accompanist, Miss Ethel Richards, pupils from the Angier School, Waban, Miss Lena Nixon, of the Bigelow School, who used a short play; Miss Ruth Brown and Miss Marion Hamilton, of the Bigelow School who played two piano duets; Miss Julia Tobin, of the Clafin School, who sang charmingly; and Miss Mary Broughton, of the Stearns School, accompanied by Miss Witherell, who gave great pleasure with her violin selections. Afternoon tea, sandwiches and cakes were served by the Entertainment Committee and a social hour followed.

FAREWELL PARTY

One of the most charming parties of the fall season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wright, at Oak Hill, on Wednesday evening, October 11. It was a farewell party tendered to Miss Eleanor Wright on the eve of her departure for California where she intends to make her home for some time.

In all about a hundred guests attended among whom were many of Newton's most prominent citizens. Miss Wright was given a purse of gold by her friends and the presentation speech was made by Mr. Nathaniel Hasenfuls, Boston College '22.

Miss Wright was formerly a student at Newton High School where she was very popular and was a very good student.

Among those present who are well known in this city were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Esty, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Esty, Miss Louise Eisenhardt, Misses Muriel Esty, Dorothy Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Winslow, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. Fred Esty and many others.

MURPHY—HORAN

The wedding of Miss Rose Elizabeth Horan, the daughter of Mrs. Mary Horan of Adams street and Mr. J. Francis Murphy of Brighton, took place last Sunday afternoon at the rectory of the Church of Our Lady, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Lawrence Slattery. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Horan of Cambridge as maid of honor, and Mr. Joseph Murphy, brother of the groom was the best man.

The bride was gowned in crepe satin trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore pink georgette over blue, with black picture hat and carried pink roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride which was decorated with cut flowers and autumn leaves.

JONES—FREDERICKS

A notable fall wedding in this city was that of Miss Edith Fredericks, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Fredericks of Park avenue, Newton, and Mr. Durham Jones of Farlow road. The wedding took place on Saturday evening at the Second Church in West Newton which was decorated with cedar trees, with lilies and tall vases of gladioli on the chancel table.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and two clergymen took part in the ceremony, Rev. J. Edgar Park, pastor of the Second Church, and Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure of Grace Church.

Mrs. Charles H. Myers, Jr., of Newtonville, was the maid of honor, and Miss Helen Palache of Llewellyn Park, N. J., was the maid of honor. The bride party also included the Misses Genevieve Brosius of Lock Haven, Pa., Minerva Dickerman of Minneapolis, Minn., Dorothy Henry, of Brookline, Frances Stebbins of Newton, Gertrude Wiggin of Brookline, and Mrs. Harold M. Landon of Lawrenceville, L. I.

The bride wore white net embroidered with pearls and silver with court train of net. Her veil was of Brussels lace held by a bandeau of orange blossoms. The matron of honor and maid of honor were gowned alike in brown lace over cloth of gold, with gold bandeaux and they carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were in yellow Roman satin with brown net fillets and carried Ophelia roses.

Mr. Singleton Moorehead, of Andover, Mass., was the best man, and the guests were seated by these ushers: Messrs. Robert Sargent of Chestnut Hill, Gerald Henderson of New York city, Charles H. Myers, Jr., of Newtonville, Everett Jones of West Newton, Eben H. Ellison, Jr., of Newton, Jackson Bright of Wayland, and William Stearns and B. F. Currier of Brookline.

The church organist, Mr. William Lester Bates was at the organ, and gave a program of special music written by a friend of the bride.

A largely attended reception followed at the Fredericks home on Park avenue, Newton, where Mr. and Mrs. Jones were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks and Mr. and Mrs. William Estabrook Jones. The house was adorned with greenery and chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make a wedding trip to Honolulu.

The bride is a graduate of Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn., and the groom is a graduate of Harvard, Class of '22.

HUNNEWELL CLUB RECEPTION

The Neighborhood Night at the Hunnewell Club Saturday evening took the form of a reception in honor of three of its distinguished members—Hon. William F. Bacon, Judge of the District Court.

Major Henry D. Comerai, Veteran of the World War.

President Blakemore in introducing the guests of the evening spoke of the cosmopolitan character of the Hunnewell Club and the wide variety of interests embraced in its membership and spoke of the valuable public services performed by the three members honored at this time.

Hon. William F. Bacon spoke of the difficulties of his position and assured the members of a warm reception if they should appear in his Court.

Hon. Alonzo R. Weed told of some of the humorous phases of his Court work and assured the members that whatever opportunities for public service he had had, had been due to the confidence of his friends and neighbors.

Major Henry D. Comerai told of the wonderful record made by Newton boys in the Great War and of efforts made to take care of them since that time.

cussed with the Board various contemplated activities for the coming season. A brief financial report indicated that the condition of the treasury was very satisfactory.

Various committees were received and referred to the proper committees while two new committees were authorized, one to study the need for parking spaces throughout the city and another to seek changes and improvements in steam railroad service.

Arrangements for the monthly Chamber meetings, beginning this month, were referred to the executive committee, with full power.

NO MIRRORS IN BARBER SHOP

Tonsorial Parlors for Bobbing M. lady's Hair Are Now Without Looking Glasses.

Speaking of the play of Hamlet without the Dane, what do you think of the mirrorless barber shop? Surely an egregious thing, revolutionary and rather alarming, almost a contradiction in terms. Yet it has arrived. It flourishes. It proves itself an answer to a need of the hour.

But not for men. No, no! The barber shop without mirrors is for the bobbing of women's hair, remarks the New York Sun. It seems that women are too emotional to watch the amputation of "woman's crowning glory" without raising a fuss interfering with the work of the hair surgeon. They twitter and fidget, and get excited and give directions, and make the operator so nervous that he is sometimes prevented from turning out what he considers a neat job.

The idea of mirrorless surgery for the mutilation of female heads seems to have originated up Boston way.

When the bobbing craze first struck New York barber shops were fitted up for women with a special eye to abundant and brilliant illumination of mirrors. Indeed, the mirror, woman's friend, was banked upon as the supreme attraction in the new style of shearing parlor. But it was found the reflection of the victim after her tresses received their first slash was so unnerving to her, and stimulated her to so many criticisms, warnings and minute instructions that it was soon seen that the mirrors must learn to take her shearing like a sheep.

TO MAR ST. MICHEL'S BEAUTY

Sitting Up of the Bay Is Causing Much Anxiety to the People of Normandy.

The steady sitting up of the Bay of St. Michel is a cause of much anxiety to the good people of Normandy. It threatens to spoil the beauty of the famous Mont St. Michel, which at present is linked to the mainland only by an artificial causeway. Formerly the Mont, which in the course of the centuries has been by turns a Druidical shrine, a Benedictine abbey, and a state prison, and which, since its restoration by Violette-Leduc, is jealously preserved as an historical monument, was as inaccessible at high tide, except by boat, as its Cornish counterpart, St. Michael's Mount still is. But the causeway enabled a light railway to run to the very foot of the Mont, and this causeway is stated by experts to be one of the great causes of the sitting up, which it is predicted, will eventually make the Mont just part of the ordinary coastline.

Electric-Lighted Handbag.

The latest novelty from London—not Paris—is a lady's handbag equipped interiorly with an electric light. Just as if it was necessary for a woman to need a light to empty her purse! Nevertheless, the novelty handbag is about the cutest thing to arrive this season from the other side. One that was a gift to a young matron was the sensation of a section of the lower floor in a theater, Raymond G. Carroll recently wrote from New York to the Philadelphia Ledger. She opened the handbag, a function which automatically flooded the inside of the bag with light from a tiny electric bulb, located about half an inch below the clasp, and fed from a miniature storage battery covered with oil skin, fastened at the bottom of the bag.

Tangled Tongues.

Spoonerisms, like the poor, we have always with us. Two new and rather good ones came to our attention recently. The other day a Chicago woman, testifying against her husband in her divorce suit, declared: "He leads me, his awful wife, a lawful life." There was a loud titter in the court, and blushing with embarrassment she hastened to correct herself.

The other concerns a young woman who was dining at a strange house. On the table was a dish of boiled onions, and when her hostess was serving these and remarked that, of course, she liked them, the young woman remarked enthusiastically: "Oh, yes, indeed; if there is one vegetable I like it is called onions." Just think if her hostess' husband had been a chiropodist.—Boston Transcript.

Took a Long Journey.

Last fall an inhabitant of Osthelm, Alsace, captured a swallow nesting under the gable of the roof. He released it with the following message attached on parchment: "During the summer of 1921 I lived with a farmer at Osthelm. He would be glad to learn where I have spent the winter when I return." The bird returned recently to its Alsatian home, bearing the following inscription: "I have been staying with a shoemaker, Joseph Bady, on the Island of Martinique, who salutes my present host."

Surprising.

"Gosh! that's wax!" exclaimed the country cousin. "Who in the lightning world would ever believe there was such a lot of folks in Kay See?" "But you must remember," returned the city cousin, "that Kansas City has nearly four hundred thousand inhabitants."

"Yes, but, great governor, who'd have thought to see 'em all on Twelfth street at once."—Kansas City Star.

of time to do much necessary polishing. After the Somerville game Newton faces the hardest part of the schedule, meeting Medford, Cambridge Latin, and Rindge on successive Saturdays away from home.

We found a choice gem in the sporting column of a Waltham paper for this week. The Watch City sporting writer, after going into raptures over Waltham's large score victory against Quincy last Saturday, was unable to restrain his joy and allowed this charming bit of syllogistic reasoning (?) to escape. He said: "Newton beat Quincy 13-0. Waltham beat Quincy 21-0. Draw your own conclusions. Ergo what? Ergo nothing. The only conclusion we can draw is that there are some sporting writers who would profit greatly by taking a course in dialectics. Waltham plays Dean 2nd tomorrow so we had better be on the lookout for some more of this baffling logic."

The Newton Junior Varsity team which suffered a drubbing at the hands of Country Day last Saturday is scheduled to face the Milton Academy Juniors at Clafin Field this afternoon. If the Newton Junior team expects to meet with any success it will have to play in "All By Myself" and substitute "All for One, One for All." In the Country Day game the lads showed a woeful lack of team play and an apparent ignorance of signals. Outside of that, etc.:

"Jake" Stafford, Newton's star quarterback and captain of 1921, is Harvard Freshman. The only Harvard player on the 1921 Exeter leader. It is unusual for a team to have two such able players as Stafford and McGone, and we expect to see Coach Snow put McGone, who is heavier than Jake, into a halfback position. No sense in keeping one of them on the bench when they both might be in the lineup.

THE HORSE SHOW

A large number of Newton owned horses won prizes yesterday at the Horse Show on the grounds of Mr. Louis K. Liggett at Chestnut Hill for the benefit of the Newton Hospital.

Entries from the stable of Mrs. Frank B. Hopewell of Newton, all ridden or driven by Miss Evelyn Brison of West Newton, won 10 blues, three seconds and two thirds. Miss Alice Stuart of Newton Centre took four firsts, four reds and four yellows with her horses. Entering from Geyvlyt Stables, the Liggett menage won four blues, two reds, three yellows and one white.

Miss Andrea Adie of Chestnut Hill won four blues and a second, a third and a fourth. The horses owned by Sydney A. Beggs also figured well in the standing. The Hopewell entries were large that fifth and sixth prizes were awarded. Darkness had fallen before the judging was completed.

Miss Stuart won her honors with pride of Kildare and Mountain Maid, both of which won at Brockton Fair last week. The Hopewell entries were headed by Irma Denmark, which won in several classes. Miss Brison carried home quite a collection of silver cups, in addition to her ribbons.

As usual a few horses went into tantrums, giving the gallery a little excitement. Miss Loraine Liggett's Play Boy acted up twice and once unseated her.

A slow race for ponies was a novelty everybody enjoyed. In the first heat the owners rode their own ponies trying to go as slow as possible though always moving. Riders were changed and each owner tried to beat his own horse as the slowest pony around wins the race. Clifford H. Pratt's Topsy is not much more than 29 inches high. He won by many yards.

A race trotting under the saddle 10 times around the ring found Burket's Riding School Black Bess a whirlwind. The Black Bess trotted 10 times around before Geyvlyt Stables' Commander, ridden by Lee Liggett, had trotted around eight times.

Exhibitions were given of clever horsemanship by Troop A, 110th Cavalry, Massachusetts National Guard. They went through intricate drills, and each owner carried a pony and had a tug-of-war by hand.

There were many handsome prizes, a dozen cups, some fine bridles, crops and whips, presented along with the ribbons. These were donated in the cause of the Newton Hospital.

Boy Scouts assisted at the gate and with selling programs. Officials of the Newton Horse Show were Louis K. Liggett, honorary chairman, J. P. Westcott, Jr., chairman, George A. Haynes, treasurer, T. E. L. Kemp, show secretary, J. E. Abbott, George Cypchase, Francis Peabody, Ernest F. Fones, and John Washburn were the judges. Arthur H. Lovesey was the ringmaster.

CLAFIN GUARD VETERANS

ence to the state police patrol. Incidentally he paid a high tribute to Representative Bernard Early, whom he said could well be termed the "father of the State Constabulary of Massachusetts." Col. Foote said that the average police force was either mediocre or worse than mediocre and emphasized the need of a trained force to guard our lives and our property.

Rev. R. T. Loring spoke briefly expressing his belief that military training emphasized character and loyalty. Others who spoke were Capt. Warren Barker of Fort Strong, Lieut. Boyd and Mr. George C. Warren.

An interesting incident of the dinner was the reception given to two of the old flags formerly used by the Clafin Guard. The flags were carried by Dr. A. R. Barrow and Mr. H. O. Wallman. They were the first uniform of the Guard, including the bearskin hat, and the other wearing the white uniform of later years.

PROHIBITION FACTS

"All the facts are wrong but it would be hard to find many better arguments for the passage of the state enforcement act, Referendum Question No. 4, than is offered in the broadcast letter of the Association Against Prohibition," said Arthur J. Davis, superintendent of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League in a statement issued today. "If enforcement is as ineffective as this letter maintains, then we cannot longer do without a law empowering our peace officers to act."

"The Volstead Act did not destroy three hundred millions of annual revenue, as this letter asserts. Instead, it created a sober America able to multiply its internal revenue tax payments over five times without serious embarrassments. It turned into creative channels not only the $189,518,287 paid in liquor taxes in 1917, the last normal 'wet year,' but also the $1,693,231,478 which was the annual drink bill in 1917."

"The Massachusetts State Bureau of Labor Statistics has reported that in this state 75% of the adult paupers were alcohol addicts and that 40% were reduced to pauperism by excessive indulgence; that 96.44% of the adult criminals were alcoholics and that with 84.41% intemperate habits led to the commission of the crime for which they were imprisoned; that 54.44% of the adult insane in the state were alcoholics."

"The principal source of poverty, crime and insanity vanished with the closing of the open saloon. If drink-made paupers, criminals and madmen were added to the present almshouse, prison and asylum population at the same rate as in the past, the tax rate would jump over the moon."

"The increase in drunkenness mentioned in the broadcast letter is scarcely accurate. It ignores the actual fact that drunkenness arrests on the average for the last two 'dry' years were 55% LESS in the state than in the average for the last seven 'wet' years, according to the reports of the Massachusetts Department of Correction."

"But Mr. Fleming, who signed the letter, is right in one respect—enforcement will be ineffective until we have a state enforcement act."

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION

The Woman's Association of Central Church held its first afternoon meeting October 11th. The group idea which has been carried out so successfully for the past two years is to be used again this year and Group 1 under the leadership of Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, was in charge.

The meeting was opened by a service of song and praise often used at Northfield. This was followed by a reading of Van Dyke's "The Tribe of Helpers," by Mrs. James A. Stafford.

Mrs. Palmer, the Association's delegate to Northfield, gave "A Northfield Vision of Our Homeland." She sketched briefly but vividly her impressions of the meetings there, of the natural beauty of the country, of the enthusiasm of the young people's group—who are so soon to take up the world's work—of the inspiration of the leaders conducting study classes and of the evening meetings on Round Top.

The second part of the program was given over to the consideration of the contribution of the negro to America. Dr. Wilcox spoke on "The Negro in Art and Literature" referring especially to the collection of paintings and sculpture now on exhibition at the Boston Art Museum. Mrs. A. D. Salinger and Mrs. Palmer gave selections from the poetry of Paul Lawrence Dunbar. Mrs. W. F. Ferrin interpreted the negro music by a group of "Spirituals" and Mrs. Kenneth Hastings rendered a violin solo, "Mammy's Lullaby." Mrs. D. E. Baker was at the piano. Mrs. Walter Kelley had charge of the tea.

WEST NEWTON JITNEY SERVICE

There is going to be a first class jitney service with automobile, on November 1-2, operated by the management of the Library Fair.

Isn't that going some? If it should rain—perish the thought—it should rain two days, or if there are people just a little old of lane, or not very well, the jitney line will take them to or from the fair at the Unitarian Church, or to the Restaurant at the Congregational Church, or to Players Hall where all the children of West Newton are to have the time of their lives. Nothing left undone on November 1-2, that can add to the joy of life. Come and see for yourself whether this is an idle boast.

A special Rally Service of the Centenary Sunday School will be held Sunday morning October 22.

The alarm from box 4 last Friday afternoon was for a small blaze in the garage of Melrose Bros. on Auburn street caused by a back fire.

The Centenary Young Women's Club is preparing a play, "Mrs. Lundy," which will be presented in the parish house October 31. A strong cast of characters assures a splendid rendering of this bright and pleasant play.

Wednesday afternoon, October 11, the ladies of Centenary Parish were entertained at a musicale given by Rev. and Mrs. Harper at the parsonage. The program consisted of tenor and soprano solos, and duets, which were accompanied by Mrs. Alice Bardeen.

Centenary M. E. Church is carrying out a program with eleven objectives during the period until Christmas this year. Last week special stress was laid upon the congregation subscribing for and reading the church paper, Zion's Herald. More than fifty subscriptions were secured.

November 22 to 24 Centenary Church will hold an indoor Chautauqua and Home Festival. Three evenings of concerts or entertainments, with strong programs will be presented in the auditorium of the church, while in the parish house and parlors a fair will be carried on. The booths will represent the different rooms of a home, and endeavor will be made to have a thoroughly homelike atmosphere.

Mrs. George Sanderson of River street, who fell last week when getting up from her chair and bruised her right knee, is very fortunate to be able to walk. Mrs. Sanderson also had another slight accident last Sunday. In trying to walk across the floor she ran a needle into her right foot. Mrs. Sanderson, though 87 last spring, has remarkable recuperative powers—one of the spry old ladies of New England stock.

Rev. Earl E. Harper, pastor of Centenary Church, was speaker at the Boston Methodist preachers' meeting at Wesleyan Hall, Monday morning, Oct. 9. Tuesday night he was the preacher in a series of special meetings being held at the Methodist Church, Gleasondale, Mass. Rev. Mr. Harper will spend three days next week at Fall River, Mass., as director of music and worship at the Massachusetts State Sunday School Convention.

The Senior Choir of Centenary Church is rapidly maturing a heavy program of oratorio and opera music to be given in concert at the church indoor Chautauqua and Home Festival, Nov. 24. The program includes such favorite choral numbers as "Unfold ye Portals" and the "Hallelujah Chorus," the Finale from the "Third Act of Martha, quintet and chorus, and the famous "Sextet from Lucia" with choral background. The program will close with Horatio Parker's setting of the Poem "A. D. 1919," the Yale University Commemorative Ode, with soloist and trumpet obligato.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE—"Spice of 1922," the big musical revue which scored such a record-breaking summer success at the New York Winter Garden, will open at the Boston Opera House, October 16, for a limited engagement of three weeks. This dazzling spectacle of mirth and melody is sponsored by Arnan Kaliz, and is in "Spice" was written by Jack Lait, and two acts and thirty-two scenes, staged by Allan K. Foster. It is announced as the "biggest show of the season at back-to-normal prices." Although it drew $5 at the Winter Garden, the top price on tour will only be $2. The most alluring feature of "Spice of 1922" is the famous Garden of Eden chorus of fifty beautiful girls, many of whom were recruited from the ranks of Greenwich Village artist models. Every type of beauty is represented, with the vogue trend to bobbed-haired blondes and Titians. The girls present a startling novelty in the Japanese temple scene, clad in costumes of imported Oriental paint. In a blue and white Holland scene they offer a picturesque wooden shoe dance.

Call and see the "SYRACO" SELF-REGULATING HOT WATER GARAGE HEATER. It is simple, automatic, durable and safe.

Albert Edgar Angier School

Frank Spain has been chosen Chairman of the School Council. The Council is composed of the class officers of grades six, seven, and eight. The pupils in those grades chose the chairman.

The school football team was defeated at Concord by the McAllister School, the score being 27 to 7. Both teams played excellently and both coaches have established a cordial friendship which will hold. It is hoped through all sports.

Daily opening exercises in the assembly hall will begin Monday. This is an entire school project, that proved its worth to the pupils and the community so thoroughly last year. For the coming week Roger Haddock has been chosen to give the announcements, Eleanor Burnham to lead the singing, Ethel Richards to play the piano, Robert Rinehardt to read the Bible, Robert Turner to lead the Lord's Prayer, Hamilton Yardley will lead the salute to the Flag, and Thomas Leach and an able corps of assistants will have charge of the passing and seating of pupils.

At the home of Miss Esma Brown, a "back-to-kindergarten-days" party was held for the faculty of the school—enough said!

Their records show that Frances Villings of the fifth grade has the highest amount saved this year with a total of $12.98; second is Phyllis Holman with $11.05; and third Barbara Cram with $11.00. The fourth grade has the highest room total having saved $40.59, the fifth grade is second with $39.74, and the second grade third with $31.87. The total amount saved by the school is $209.15. The goal set is to have everyone with a savings account and saving regularly.

MAJESTIC THEATRE—A company of players that would credit to many of the great Broadway revues playing at three dollar prices is to be seen in "The Spice of Life," the swift moving and highly comic melodrama with music which comes to the Majestic Theatre, Boston, for the week of October 16. Inimitable Sylvia Clark, dubbed by a great newspaper critic as "the little eccentric clown of vaudeville," shares with Dave Kramer and Jack Boyle the featured position in this whirlwind revel of dancing, comedy and song. Her comic characterizations approach the classic in their execution. No haphazard work, hers, but a carefully thought-out and studied performance. Kramer and Boyle are the pair who abashed the limits of laughter. The Hicky Brothers, who figure prominently in all the more hilarious episodes in "Spice," are late stars of that exalted spectacle. Surrounding this array of players are the twelve London Tivoli girls, young women brought direct from London to appear in this revue. Their dancing is said to be a revelation to those accustomed to the stilted stepping of the American chorus girl.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Newton Girl Scout Officers' Association held its first meeting of the season on Monday evening of this week at Camp Mary Day. Supper was served at 6 o'clock. At 7.30, Captain Potter, president of the association called the meeting to order. Plans for the winter were discussed. The association will meet once each month until June, on the second Wednesday. The meetings will be held in the Unitarian Parish House, West Newton. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock, followed by the meeting at 7.30. Mrs. Wm. J. Hodges, Captain of the Senior Division of Troop 3, and chairman of the Program Committee outlined a very attractive program for the winter. The meeting will be devoted to games. How to play them and playing them. There will be a speaker at each of the other meetings followed by a question period and a time for general discussion. The question of a Leaders' Course came up and Miss Freeman said that such a course would be given during the year, probably starting in November. The course will be conducted along the same lines as the one which proved such a success last year with the addition of First Class and Merit Badge work. Definite plans for this course will be announced later. The possibility of more "Get-together" meetings for the Scouts in different troops was discussed. Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Weston and Miss Gould were chosen a committee to make out a program of monthly recreational meetings when Scouts or teams of Scouts from the 10 different Troops might meet together and compete in different games. Camp Mary Day proved an ideal place for the meeting. The officers could not help but feel that the inspiration of the place seated about the big open fire in the living room of their beautiful new camp—and all will start the winter's work with a new enthusiasm, realizing what opportunities lie before them in working with the girls and seeing more than ever the wonderful possibilities in this beautiful camp for the Girl Scouts of Newton. Nine of the officers remained in Camp until Tuesday noon.

On Wednesday nine Scouts from Troop 6—the Nonantum Troop, arrived in Camp to spend the holiday. Captain Sprague, Miss Louise Lovett, chairman of the Troop Committee of that troop, and Lieut. White of Troop 2 accompanied them. The Scouts are extremely enjoying their camp to the utmost. The porches are so protected that they have been able so far to eat and sleep out of doors and the living room is so large that it makes an ideal place to play games or to dance in the evening. This Fall most of the Troops have had perfect weather—but rainy days cannot dampen the spirits of the girls. Miss Freeman always has a "new game" ready and everything is so cozy inside that the girls quite enjoy a rainy day and all agree that rain or shine the Camp is just the most wonderful place.

Troop 6 held its first meeting on Oct. 9 at the Stearns School. There were 16 girls present. Cecile Campaign was elected secretary for the year and Catherine Doucette was elected treasurer. The following girls were chosen as Patrol Leaders: Cecile Campaign, Catherine Doucette, and Esther Mielman, while the following were elected Corporals: Julia Canter, May Terrio, Bessie Shelman.

The first meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club was held at Norumbega Park on October 10, according to schedule, though on account of the weather, the shelter of the restaurant building was substituted for the out-of-door occasion planned. This proved entirely successful, and the day's program was successfully carried out over one hundred members being present. The announcements made at the business meeting promise a season of varied activities, the book exchange is already in operation, there are to be several classes, while the chorus begins work on October 16, new members being cordially welcomed. After a picnic lunch the entire company joined in playing old fashioned games, the merriment within being quite undampened by the rain without. At 2.30 an exceptionally fine report of the Bazaar at Chautauqua was given by Mrs. Wilbur D. Kilpatrick, president of the club. A demonstration of drill and cheering was given by the Girl Scouts under the leadership of the Captain Potter who earnestly invites all club members to become better acquainted with the work of the Scouts. The demonstration was very much enjoyed. Altogether a rainy day at Norumbega Park proved to be well worth while.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

In closing her first greeting to the club women of Massachusetts, Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, the new president of the State Federation, expresses the wish that the clubs may be sane and well balanced, all working for the same goal—a cleaner, healthier, and happier Massachusetts. She also explains the new ruling relative to conferences this year. Each district may have one district conference at which the work of one or two departments may be presented. This may be an all-day conference, if desired, and a part of the time given over to a conference of presidents' clubs in the district. Each district may also have one department conference during the year where two departments may present their work. The departments may also have a state conference and possibly a luncheon.

At least one hour of the Presidents' Conference next week will be devoted to the discussion of club problems, of which there is no more serious one than the legislative policy.

Several prominent Massachusetts club women are passing on to work in the General Federation. Mrs. George Minot Baker, past president, is chairman of the Program for the Council meeting at Atlanta, Ga., in May 1923. Mrs. Joseph S. Leach, a vice-president, is chairman of the newly created division of Home Demonstration. Mrs. Walter S. Little continues as chairman of Art, while Miss May Bliss Dickinson is a member of the Public Health and Child Welfare committee, and Mrs. Arthur H. Davidson will serve on the Music department.

Miss George A. Bacon was elected an honorary vice-president of the General Federation at the Biennial at Chautauqua.

Thursday, October 19, 3 P. M. Public Health district conference by invitation of the Wilmington Woman's Club at North Reading State Sanatorium.

IMPRESSIONS OF EUROPE

Miss Lucy Allen returned a few weeks ago from a trip to Europe.

Among her many delightful experiences were automobile trips through Devonshire and the English Lake region.

Speaking of England, Miss Allen reports that conditions there are much better than a year ago.

Effects of the late war were noticeable in Nuremberg and in Hamburg. In the latter city there are many high-born, cultured ladies and gentlemen living in beautiful villas who have not enough to eat.

Miss Allen visited the Scandinavian countries for the first time this year. Travelling in these countries is expensive, Norway, however, being the cheapest of the three.

FRENCH—DOTY

One of the first weddings to take place this week was that of Miss Helen Taft Doty of Arlington to Mr. Abram Waldo French of West Newton which took place on Monday night in the Congregational Church in Arlington.

The bride wore a gown of beaded chiffon over satin crepe made with a court train, and a bridal veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried lilies and orchids.

Her attendants were Miss Jennie E. Chaffee of Glen Ridge, N. J., maid of honor, and Miss Anne and Miss Margaret French of West Newton, sisters of the groom. Mrs. Grenville Hancock of Cambridge, Mrs. Bernard Gerrish of Wellesley Hills, Mrs. Willard McLeod of New Bedford, and Mrs. Robert Putnam of Belmont.

The gown worn by the maid of honor was of blue crepe meteor, and of the other attendants of orchid pink satin.

Mr. John Taylor French, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Charles Hawes Doty, Jr., James R. Doty, brothers of the bride, James Gibson of West Newton, Merrill Walker of Newton, and Frank Ballou of New York.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony at the church. The groom is a graduate of Harvard, class of 1919. After their wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. French will make their home in Cambridge.

SMITH COLLEGE ASSOCIATION
The Boston Association of Smith College Alumnae met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Webber on Washington street, Newton.

Because of the inclemency of the weather, the meeting was held indoors instead of out of doors as originally planned.

About forty gathered together and exchanged reminiscences of college life and experiences since college days.

Many arrived in time for an informal lunch with coffee served by the hostess.

Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson, of Newton Highlands, President of the Association spoke a word of greeting to the members present, and introduced a representative of the American Association of University Women who told of the work and aims of this organization.

The program concluded with a short play, "By Courier," written by O. Henry and arranged by Miss Ethel Freeman for the occasion.

Those taking part were Elizabeth Moore, Smith '18, Ruth Blodgett Sheddin, '16, and Henrietta Wills.

THE CONSTABULARY

The annual meeting of the Newton Constabulary Association will be held at the Newton Club, Newtonville, on Thursday evening, October 26th, at eight o'clock.

An entertainment will be provided by a committee with Major Chandler as chairman, and a buffet supper will be served under the direction of Captain Bryant.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Bigelow Notes

The highest percentage of attendance for the first four weeks of school was 99.67, Miss Dyer's class; Miss Searle's class came second with 98.23; Miss Nixon's third with 97.63.

Mr. Maxim, of the Technical High School, visited the Bigelow School Friday morning and gave us many hints to help us make our penmanship more attractive and easier to read.

The school assembled in the Hall Wednesday afternoon. The Class Penmanship for School Spirit were presented by Mr. Chase to the winning divisions. Miss Stearns's Seventh Grade won the 24 pennant; Miss Dyer's Eighth Grade was the winner of '23. Charles Smith recited "Sail On." Then followed the moving picture film Christopher Columbus.

Stearns School

The Newton Girls' Club held a meeting to new members on Wednesday, October 10, at Stearns School Centre. Miss Marion Niles, president of the Massachusetts League of Girls' Clubs, Miss Ross, Secretary of the League, and Miss Hazel White, of the Girls' City Club, were guests of the Club. After a short musical program, Miss Anna Morrison, President, presented a handsome traveling bag, a gift from the Club, to Miss Mae Fisher, who leaves for California, to reside at San Jose. Miss Fisher has been secretary of the Girls' Club for two years, and has been an active member for four years, having gone to the National Conferences as delegate for the Club.

Miss Irene Mellen and Miss Mary Casey were in charge of the entertainment for the evening.

The three classes in the district, having the highest percentage of attendance last month, are as follows: Mrs. Kidder's class, Grade 5, 98.2; Mrs. Goddard's class, Grade 3, 98.2; Miss Smith's class, Grade 1, 98.2.

The morning lunch business is booming this year. We are using about $170 worth of milk a month and $50 worth of crackers and cookies.

Candidates for the school football team are to be called out Friday afternoon. A schedule has been arranged and the Stearns looks forward to another championship team, although many members of last year's team are missing. Bernard Lyman, Ralph Slamin and Charles Mackin, now playing on the Junior High team, will be available for the team on the day of the games. James Lyman and Francis Morrell star members of last year's team, are leading candidates again.

LAYMEN'S PREACHING MISSION

Edward C. Mercer and Henry H. Hadley, 2nd, will begin an eight days' Laymen's Preaching Mission in Trinity Church, Newton Centre, next Sunday morning, Oct. 15, at 10.45 o'clock. Mr. Mercer will preach at the morning service. His subject will be "A 20th Century Prigal Son—My Personal Experience."

Mr. Mercer will also preach at the evening service at 7.15, the first of the special evening services this autumn at Trinity Church. His subject will be: "The Only Class of People God Doesn't Help."

Messrs. Mercer and Hadley have conducted mission services in Episcopal Churches throughout the country with great success. There is nothing sensational about their methods. They are two virile laymen, with a vigorous, intensive message of personal righteousness.

The history and personal experience of these two men, before and after their conversion, is a romance of reawakened manhood, and of two lives consecrated to human service.

They will speak every night this coming week at 8 o'clock, except Saturday, in Trinity Church.

WEST NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL

The West Newton Music School is now open for the season. Registrations will be received at the Peirce School, West Newton, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday morning; Stearns School, Nonantum, Monday and Thursday afternoons; Hyde School, Newton Highlands, Tuesday afternoon and Saturday morning.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The society held its first rehearsal of the season Tuesday evening, with much enthusiasm. About 100 were present, which was many more than attended the first rehearsal of any previous season. It seemed a remarkable turn out considering that the night was a very stormy one. Mr. William Lester Bates, the conductor, directed the practice as usual. The selection of part songs is considered the finest program of the kind which the society has so far attempted.

The following new members were received: Mr. Edward J. Cox, Miss Helen D. Taylor, Mrs. Harry K. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Jones, Miss Harriet H. Steele, Miss Millicent A. Bardsley, all of Newtonville; Mrs. M. L. Perkins, Newton Centre; Miss Alice L. Castle, Mr. Joseph H. Barber, Mr. Donald Frail, Mr. Wakefield E. Perkins, Miss Marjorie Bates, all of West Newton; Miss Florence Owen, Newtonville; Mr. H. B. Remick, Mrs. M. B. Remick, both of Auburndale.

More singers are desired. Rehearsals Tuesday nights at 7.45 at Central Church, Newtonville.

WANTED GOSPELS BY MARK

Husky Cowboy Gives Up Life of Crime After Reading Tract Supplied by Bible Society.

One afternoon Rev. A. Wesley Mell, secretary of the Pacific agency of the American Bible society, was working alone in the San Francisco depository. Suddenly the door opened and a cowboy 6 feet 1 in height, with one eye gone (shot out in a drunken brawl), with sombrero and chaps and clanking spurs came toward him with outstretched hand. Mr. Mell thought at once that it was a hold-up. But the cowboy said to him, "I want some gospels by Mark." And he got them.

This cowboy, who had been riding the range for several months, had drawn his pay and come into San Francisco for a good time. One morning he awoke to find himself in one of the lowest rooming-houses in the worst section of the city. Every cent of his money was gone and he debated as to what he should do to raise sufficient funds to take him home. He finally decided that he would go out on the street and "stick somebody up."

As he lay in bed working out his plans he noticed a small maroon-covered book lying on the stand by the side of his bed. Not being in any special hurry to go out and perpetrate a hold-up, and out of pure curiosity, he picked up the book.

It was one of the 3-cent Gospels of Mark, printed by the American Bible society, which are given by the thousands to mission workers.—American Bible Society.

HAS NO CINCH ON ALPHABET

Prairie Village Barber Replies to Demand of R. R. Company Not to Use Its Initials.

Some time ago the Canadian Pacific Railway company issued notices to certain hotels, restaurants, shops, etc., protesting against the unauthorized use of its initials. One Timothy O'Brien, proprietor of the "C. P. R. Barber Shop" in a prairie village, replied the warning, and replied as follows:

"Dear Sir—I got your notice. I don't want no law suit with yure company. I no yure company owns most everything—rallorodes, steamers, most of the best land and the time, but I don't know as you own the hole alphabet. The letters on my shop don't stand for yure rallorode, but for somethin' better. I left a muther in Ireland, she is dead and gawn, but her memories are dear to me. Her maiden name was Christina Patricia Reardon, and what I want to no is what you are going to do about it. I suppose you won't argue that the balance of my sign what refers to cut rates has got anything to do with yure rallorodes. There ain't been no cut rates round these parts that I nos of."—London Morning Post.

Green Diamonds in Africa.

Two discoveries of green diamonds have recently been reported from South Africa. The first, found in the Bloemhof district, was a 5 1/2 karat stone, black and opaque, which, on cutting, yielded a jewel of 1 1/2 karats of an emerald-green shade. It has been appraised by London experts at about $5,000, or about 100 times the price of a water-white diamond, says the Engineering and Mining Journal. The second green diamond was washed out at Parys, a short time ago, and was of ten karats weight. It has been sent to a government valuator at Cape Town. One of the most celebrated green diamonds is the "Dresden Green," in the Saxon Crown jewels, which weighs about 40 karats and is apple-green in color.

Freak Memory of a German.

Herr Otto Schrader of Berlin is reputed to have the most marvelous memory in the world. The German Meteorological society tested it recently. "What was the weather the other day—say November 26, 1897?" the president of the society asked Schrader. Schrader never hesitated: "It was very clear before dawn," said Schrader. "In the afternoon it was cloudy, with snow flurries. The temperature was two or three degrees above freezing." And Schrader was right, the German scientists found out on checking up. Several American theatrical men are said to be after him to appear on the vaudeville stage in the United States this summer.

The Greatness of Peking.

Peking, the Chinese capital, about which the rival armies are now fighting, is in reality three cities in one. There is an inner or Manchurian city, and an outer or Chinese city. The inner comprises the Imperial city, which, in turn, contains the "Forbidden City" or the "Purple Forbidden City" inside the walls of which, again, is the Imperial palace. Peking itself is one of the oldest cities in the world, being known to exist in the Twelfth century before Christ, but although it is of immense size, being 25 miles in circumference, much of the space within the walls is unoccupied.

Brains.

World-famous Dr. George W. Crite, who operates as skillfully with one hand as the other, compares the human body to a dry cell, with liver the negative pole, brain the positive. Anything that affects the liver will also affect the brain, says Crite. Indirectly, therefore, it appears that the intellect is partly in the liver. Sluggish liver frequently is the cause of stupidity. A course in colonel sometimes is worth more than a course in school.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

There were over fifty boys at the meeting of Troop 7 in the Second Church in West Newton last Friday night. First Class Scout Charlie Phelps was elected by a large majority to act as the scout scribe. This scout, together with Jimmie Hoyt, the Senior Patrol Leader, should make an excellent combination for the management of the troop.

Assistant Deputy Commissioner E. J. Ovington, passed several boys in their signalling tests and Scout Master Ernest F. Dow passed five boys in their tenderfoot tests. The final half hour of the evening was spent in initiating these boys into full troop membership. It was an initiation that they probably will remember as long as they live.

Tomorrow the scouts will attend the Harvard-Bowdoin game as the guests of their friend George Owen.

ST. JAMES THEATRE

For years playwrights have been writing plays that answer the query, "who killed Cock Robin?" But not until Guy Bolton and Max Marcin conceived "The Nightingale" which will be offered this week by the Boston Stock Company at the St. James, had any playwright attempted to write a play answering the query "why kill Cock Robin?" Described as a satirical-melodramatic-mystery-comedy with shots that hit the funny-bone, "The Nightingale" offers a skillfully blended supply of the sort of melodrama that plays for comedy. The authors have created big dramatic situations and stepped aside to make fun of them. With mystery plays much in vogue, "The Nightingale" should prove itself a theatrical treat of the week.

NEWTON DOG SHOW

Successful Affair Under Auspices of Middlesex County Kennel Club

After several days of cold rain the weather man decided to give the Middlesex County Kennel Club a beautifully clear and comfortably warm day for its first outdoor show at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Grounds on October 12th.

On a fine level playground the dogs were benched by Old Trusty in one large commodious tent, and parallel with this was another tent walled in on the two ends and one long side which was divided into four large judging rings with ample space for the dogs to parade. This arrangement, which allowed the judging to proceed and be witnessed by an interested crowd of spectators without disturbing the dogs on their benches, was voted by all most attractive and successful, as it eliminated the confusion which often arises when the dogs are benched around the judging rings.

Some 330 dogs were entered. Boston Terriers led in point of numbers as usual with 48 dogs entered, a fair entry, next in order came Cocker Spaniels with 30 and only one absentee, a record entry for this club and the third largest of any outdoor show in Massachusetts for a number of years.

Then came Collies and Shepherds with 24 each, followed by Bulldogs, 18, Doberman Pinschers, 17, Bull Terriers, 14, Scotties, 10; and a good showing of the remaining breeds.

The club prize for the owner or agent benching the largest number of dogs was won by E. E. Hoskiss, who also took Old Trusty's prize for benching the largest number of any one breed.

The awards of winners' ribbons were as follows: Great Danes dogs, Hervey Mason's Pup of Melrose, Russian Wolfhounds, dogs, Dr. Fenton's Rolfe, bitches, same owner's Rose, Russian Wolfhounds, dogs, J. E. Abbott's Lord Ormonde, Pointers, dogs, Joe Armstrong's Post Road Shot, Bitches, I. E. Place's Comanche Pride, English Setter's dogs, Leahy & Waggott's Mallwyd Count, bitches, E. H. Hurd's Nan of Edendale, Irish Setters, Bitches, Michael Flynn's Lady Glendyne, Chesapeake Bay Dogs, (Continued on page 4)

IN ITS NEW HOME

The Watertown Cooperative Bank will open its new banking home at 56 Main Street, Watertown, Mass., on October 21 for public inspection from two o'clock in the afternoon until nine in the evening. It is expected that thousands of the residents of the town and visitors from nearby towns will improve this opportunity to see the interior which is in keeping with the substantial and attractive exterior, both in fittings and furnishings.

The growth of the bank, which now has assets of over $4,180,000, and which is eight times the size it was ten years ago, has been such as to demand larger quarters and there will be available more than three times the floor space now occupied. The location is near the square and opposite the Town Hall, accessible from all parts of the town and surrounding towns.

The building was purchased from the Union Market National Bank and adjoins their new building on Main Street. It has an attractive front of limestone, light brick and terra cotta. The interior of the building has been completely remodelled by Curtis W. Bixby, Architect, A. I. A., of Boston.

ELIOT CHURCH FORUM

The discussion of the general subject of Criminology under the auspices of the Eliot Church Forum began last Sunday noon with Attorney General J. Weston Allen as the speaker on the subject of Criminal Law.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. B. S. Hinckley, president of the Forum and spoke in part as follows. Criminal law, is the least understood by the average layman and indeed by many lawyers, whose practise does not take them into the criminal courts.

Our Criminal law is inherited largely from England. Our grand jury system, supposed to be impartial, is largely a machine operated by the prosecuting officer.

"We find that in this country criminal law is not a preventive of crime nor a protection of the public, but a protection for the criminal."

"One of the great faults of criminal law is the opportunity for delay it provides the criminal. An effort is now

ZONING ORDINANCE AGAIN POSTPONED

A Technicality Raised at Midnight Session, following a Two Hours Debate

Another exasperating delay in the enactment of a Zoning ordinance took place last Monday night, or rather, Tuesday morning, when after a long and tiresome debate Alderman White raised a purely technical question whether the rules requiring three days notice of the proposed ordinance had been met, inasmuch as the map of the proposed districts had not been sent out with the printed ordinance. City Solicitor Bartlett ruled that the map was a part of the ordinance and while the point might readily have been met by a routine suspension of the rule, the tension aroused by the debate was such that the majority, disgusted with Mr. White's dilatory tactics allowed the whole matter to go over until the next meeting of the board.

This was not the only matter of interest at the meeting at which Alderman Grebenstein was the only member absent. The question of granting a victualer license to the Castle Inn on Islington road, Auburndale was before the board on a majority report refusing the license. Alderman Carter, who favored the license criticized the criticisms which had been made regarding the Inn showing that the events complained of were not due to the management of the Inn. He deplored the prejudging of the case which was evident in Auburndale and the assumption that the management intended to break the law. They have over $40,000 invested in the property and as the law requires a fitting up for business before applying for a license, they were compelled to make the investment before coming to the board for a permit. Alderman Heathcote got a round of applause from the rather large audience present, when he asked what Alderman Carter would do if the Castle Inn located next to his own residence, and President Hollis cracked his gavel in attempting to maintain order. Mr. Heathcote said the Inn management may have acted in good faith but the board must look at the neighborhood where the Inn was located and Abundant is unanimously opposed to the permit. On his suggestion, Judge W. L. Allen, the counsel for the Inn was allowed to make a statement and said that there was no evidence presented against the management of the Inn other than mere hearsay and the Police Department, found everything in proper shape. Mr. Allen had known the petitioner for five years and vouched for his character. His plans call for an investment of $100,000 in that more fact should be a guarantee of the character of the Inn and their good faith. The petitioner came to Newton at Mr. Allen's advice and should be given a trial for one or two months at least.

ZONE ORDINANCE AGAIN POSTPONED

Alderman Ross was evidently disturbed over the rumors regarding his position on the matter and said that there had been a lot of cheap talk about it. He denied that he was "tied up" in any manner on the question.

Alderman Young said the petitioner should have a preliminary investigation regarding the possibility of a permit before investing $43,000 in the property, and remarked that against the sum the property valuation of the remnants of $150,000 should be considered. The residents there had made this investment for their own homes and wanted a quiet and beautiful spot. He believed the Inn would not be a day time proposition but would run far into the night with automobile traffic and consequent noise. He quoted a real estate expert as saying that property within a quarter mile of the Inn would be depreciated 25%. Mr. Young was severe on the Police Department saying that he had complained for over a year about the bootleggers in Abundant with no action from the police. As to the Inn, he closed by saying, it wasn't the management, but the crowd which would be objectionable.

Alderman Nichols took a sane and sensible stand, saying that the law contemplated the granting of such a license only for the best good of the entire city and not for the convenience of the residents of Abundant alone. The proposed location was not on a thoroughfare and hence was a place intended to be sought by outsiders for their own entertainment, and therefore was not for the public convenience. The committee report was then accepted by a voice vote.

The zoning ordinance was not brought up until the end of the docket and following a ten minute recess which lasted an hour. The debate centered over amendments offered by President Hollis to the revised ordinance as reported by a majority of the committee which had considered the matter. The effect of the amendments was to allow two family houses in the first or so called single family zone. The debate in which President Hollis, and Alderman Whidden, White Phipps, Jewell, Carter, G. W. Pratt, Melcher, Madden, Ross, Saltonstall and Heald took part, lasted nearly two hours. The amendments being rejected by a standing vote 7 to 11. It was then that Alderman White raised the technical question to which reference has been made. The board then directed the City Clerk to send out the proposed ordinance in legal form prior to the next meeting and adjourned at 12:30 A. M.

The session was also remarkable for the latitude given the general public to participate in the debate on various matters. Judge Allen spoke on the Castle Inn question, as did Mr. Will C. Eddy and Mr. C. F. Cheney made a statement in regard to the street railway tracks on Walnut street.

The session opened with the usual hearings, the Edison Company asking for poles on Dunster road and on Newtonville avenue. Mr. G. C. Warren writing a letter of protest against the first and Mr. E. A. McCassey opposing the latter.

There was a strong opposition to the petition of Gertrude Purdy for a ten car garage on Court street, Mr. A. T. Purdy speaking in favor and Mr. F. H. Heislner voicing the opposition.

The laying out of Owatonna street was favored by Messrs C. A. Chandler, W. E. Smith and C. S. Cowdrey with no opposition.

A sewer in Varick road was favored by Arthur T. Estabrook and opposed by Harold Parker and G. T. Mauch as unnecessary.

No one appeared at hearings on permits to keep gasoline by Wm. O. Harrington, Court street, the Metropolitan District Commission, at 2401 Commonwealth avenue, and Charles A. Morse at Chestnut hill road, and these permits were granted. There were hearings, also, on petition of O. D. Brett for a filling station at Park and Washington streets, and on a sewer in Westland avenue.

Mayor Childs sent in a veto of the order for $75,000 for "resurfacing." The Mayor said in part:

"This appropriation from Excess and Deficiency account is for 'street resurfacing.' I am aware however of the fact that the appropriation was made with the idea that it would be used for the resurfacing of Walnut street over the tracks of the M. & B.

The condition of Walnut street at the present time is not satisfactory. I understand that it is in my power to strive to enforce the restrictions of the original location. If I do so the kind of materials used by the street railway company under said restrictions will not be satisfactory to the neighborhood or conform with present needs for automobile traffic on Walnut street."

In view of the fact that former board has placed these old fashioned restrictions on this location, it seems to me that your Honorable board should indicate by a specific appropriation for the resurfacing of Walnut street, its desire to have Walnut street repaved so that the tracks will be in accordance with modern methods, rather than to make an in definite appropriation.

Where a former board of aldermen has placed certain restrictions it seems to me that the present board should say whether those restrictions should be carried out or not. A new method of pavement should be put in on street railway tracks at the city's expense.

To carry through the order in its present form according to what I understand to be the intention of your honorable board would be to change the contract without any specific authority to do so.

Alderman Whidden said that the changed conditions as to paving street railway tracks made it necessary to make some change in the original contract. Alderman Carter said that partial relief had already been obtained and had exhausted the difference from former conditions.

Alderman Young said that other cities were doing this work at their own expense and that some relief should be granted the residents of Walnut street. This was not to be considered a permanent change of policy but a trying out of a specific case.

Alderman Jewell questioned whether Walnut street needed heavy class construction and questioned if this was the proper pavement for that street. He also queried how much of a precedent this appropriation would make. Alderman Saltonstall said that the Mayor evidently desired to have the Street railway company live up to its contract at a cost which was opposed to the order in its present form.

Alderman White said the veto calls attention to a condition and not a theory and believed this was an initial appropriation which would eventually include all the street railway locations in the city.

The matter was then referred to the committees on Finance and Public Works. At this point Mr. Cheney took the opportunity to say that Walnut street real estate was valued at over $800,000 and that this property was being depreciated by reason of the noise of the street cars. The stretch of track, some 600 feet long was used by the 2000 pupils of the high schools. The car rails were worn threadbare the ties rotted and the paving blocks out of place and the tax payers on the street feel that they are abused.

Mayor Childs sent in recommendations for $4730 for grading streets, from Watertown line to Jefferson street, for $250 for a kindergarten at West Newton, for $1000 for grading around Abundant fire station, for $10,000 issue of Street Improvement bonds, and for $28,000 for taking up to its contract at a cost which was opposed to the order in its present form.

He also recommended taking land corner of Walnut and Watertown streets, $200 for office expenses, $500 for maintenance of autos, and $4,000 for repairs of school buildings. Buildings Department, for $168 for payment of Street Department bills of 1919 and $2455 for completion of work at the Junior High School.

These petitions were granted.—John L. Grant, truck license, John W. Harris, taxi license, A. Frechette to move building from Watertown street for auto storage, Dr. Michael C. Edison pole Dunster road, Edison relocation, Plymouth road, Telephone Company to remove 11 poles Washington street, and for the following private garages, M. I. Stone, Elmwood street, H. W. McCarthy, Arlington street, Elizabeth M. Schade, Watertown street, Dr. McWilliams, Adella avenue, A. B. Morse, West road, Joseph Salvos, Winchester street, A. C. Johnson, Merton street, and H. S. Leonard, Wesley street.

There were other petitions of R. D. Crafts, Blithedale road, C. L. Overland, Jett street, Mary Leary Boylston street and George Smith on Bowen street for private garages. The Colonial Filling Company asked for transfer of gasoline permit now held by C. J. Mchigan, Commonwealth avenue, J. P. Jewett for 1st class license for sale of automobiles, Dr. Hapkins for improvement of Laundry brook, for the laying out of Sorset street, and from Dr. Michael C. B. Hughes and Charlotte Bearsto for abatement of assessments.

On report of committees, leaving to withdraw was granted on claims of Nora McGeever, Margaret Martin, Olive E. Chamberlain, P. A. Edwards, Stearns School center, P. M. Hennessey, Jamaica Pond Garage, Mrs. Alice D. Jones, Bernard Mullan and Frank E. Ellis, of petitions for licenses of E. K. Peterson, gasoline, 967 Washington street, Colonial Filling Stations, for gasoline permit Washington and Cross streets, and G. M. Briggs, for garage on Clark place and Austin street. Also on petitions for resurfacing of Clark street, for improvement of Saw Mill brook, for sewer in Circuit avenue, for laying out of Delmore road, extension and pathway, for brook improvements in ward 3, for drainage of Langley road, for sewer in Waverly avenue and in Merriam street, to Lizzie A. Nickerson, for abatement of assessment and on offer of Joseph D'Angelo to buy city quarry on Florence street.

Petitions for sewer in Abundant avenue, for drain improvement in Prescott street, and for drain in Reservoir avenue. A committee recommendation to this effect on the drainage of Cold Spring Swamp and for improvement in the water supply was referred back to the committee on motion of Alderman White.

John J. Eustis was granted a gasoline permit at 33 Chandler street, J. A. Mills a taxi license and A. Lupo a garage permit on Adams street.

The Public Works committee reported that no action was necessary on street lighting at Chestnut hill, for drain improvement on Laundry and Cheesecake brooks.

Orders were approved for hearings on sewers in Harvard Circle, Ellison road, Broadway, Ridge avenue, and for widening Walnut street at Watertown street. Also abating sewer assessments of Cabot street, extending time for payment of sewer assessment by Miss F. W. Fogg, for sewer construction Braeland avenue, Acaia avenue, Alban road, Wolcott park and Westland avenue for laying out of Crofton road at cost of $3895, and for additional land damages for laying out of Gammons road and for rounding corner of Beacon and Walnut streets.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Hyde School

Miss Smiddy of Framingham Normal School is now assisting in the primary grades.

Miss Green's fourth grade and Miss Abbott's fifth grade were very happy over the fact that they had no tardy marks during the past month.

The two fourth grades under Miss Marguerite Greene and Miss Mabel Sampson took their annual "geography tour" on Tuesday morning. Twelve cars were loaned by the parents and people interested.

The children of the seventh grades are enjoying two new games on the playground this year, that of Newcomb, under the direction of Miss Stopp, and an adoption of Volley Ball, under Mrs. Blakemore.

Miss Lewis and Miss Pendleton, first grade teachers, have the smallest percentage of "reds," each having but three percent. In the Old Hyde Miss Sampson's class decreased their "reds" from 20% to 7% and had the smallest class for both September and October. The whole school averaged 22% for September and 17.5% for October.

Miss Herrick has begun her course of fifteen lessons in Science with the two eighth grades. There is to be one period a week.

On Tuesday evening, October 10, the Congregational Church gave a reception to all the teachers of the community. Mrs. Oakes, chairman of the Social Committee, acted as hostess, and she, with her committee, greeted each teacher, presenting her or him with a flower. Each guest was assigned to a particular hostess whose cordial attention helped her to feel welcome indeed. Solos were beautifully rendered by Mr. Paul Bennett who was accompanied by Mrs. Fuller. Delicious refreshments of sherbert and cake were served to all. This novel means of bringing together parents and teachers was greatly enjoyed by everyone present and great credit is due Mrs. Oakes and her able committee.

Mrs. Blakemore has been appointed head worker in the South Branch of the West Newton School of Music. She takes the place of Miss Blake, who is going to devote her entire time to teaching. There are five departments, violin, cello, piano, voice, and theory. Mr. Zanzig teaches theory Tuesday afternoons and Mrs. Finch on Saturdays. Mrs. Grossman has charge of the Hyde orchestra and of the Music School Orchestra. The Branch has an enrolment of about fifty pupils.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

Attendance reports for the month of September showed an average for the entire school including the kindergarten of 97.4 against 96.1 for the same month of last year. Miss Ditt's second grade was the banner class with a standing of 98.8.

The graduating class received their class pins on Wednesday afternoon and were made very happy by securing them so early in the year.

The campaign for membership in the Junior Red Cross was successful. The sum of $12.55 was contributed by the pupils thereby assuring the enrollment of all the classes.

Columbus Day was observed by the school. All the grades assembled in the Hall at 11 o'clock on the Wednesday preceding the holiday. A varied program of individual and group exercises was presented. The observance closed with a set of lantern pictures on Columbus which were presented by Thomas McDaniels and John Sullivan of the graduating class.

The Nutrition Class has been divided and now meets in two sections on Tuesday afternoons. The younger pupils meet at 1.30, the older ones at 2.30.

Miss Herrick's voluntary class in Personal and Home Hygiene meets every Thursday at 9.15.

Increased interest in games at recess is developing. Baseball, football, captain ball, and circle games, all are in evidence.

Burr School

Last week the children of the Burr School gave a play called "The Trial of Fire" in celebration of Fire Prevention Day. The setting of the play was a court scene in which the causes of fire were arraigned before the judge, Willard Tyler. Others taking part were Madison Cannon, Gerald Davis, Paul Fitzpatrick, Nathan Wentworth. There was a council of defence. Finally Carelessness was caught, convicted, and sentenced as the real cause of fires. Following the court scene, David Walter spoke briefly of the need of making every day Fire Prevention Day.

Last Friday afternoon, Chief Davis visited the Burr School and demonstrated the use of the fire extinguisher.

The two seventh grades of the Burr School are playing a five game series in baseball. At present each team has won one game.

Horace Mann School

Grade 4, Miss Chasson's room, has had 100 per cent attendance this week.

Lasell

Dr. G. M. Winslow is on an extended trip through the middle west, where he is to be the guest of honor at the reunions of a number of Lasell Clubs. On Tuesday he greeted the "old girls" in Chicago, from there he went to St. Paul, where the Minnesota Club held its celebration, the other Clubs to entertain him will be the Omaha and Council Bluffs Clubs at Omaha, the Indianapolis Club in that city, and the Ohio Lasell Club in Cleveland. He will return in time for the reunion of the Connecticut Valley Club at Hartford on the 28th, when Mrs. Winslow will accompany him.

The seniors gave a very delightful "at home" on Friday afternoon, when not only the members of the faculty and undergraduates were guests but many of the former graduates and old girls as well.

Old fashioned flowers and autumn foliage were used as decorations. Miss Catherine Louise Puckett of Birmingham, Alabama, the senior president, received in Gardner, and Miss Anna Bullock of Providence, R. I., the vice president, welcomed the guests in Carpenter Hall, both assisted by the teachers in charge of the houses and the class officers.

Dr. Laurens MacLure was the speaker at Vespers on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nedelka Simeonova, of the well known Bulgarian violinist, gave a very enjoyable concert last week Thursday evening.

Saturday, October 7, Dr. Leon H. Vincent lectured to the students on Nathaniel Hawthorne. The lecture appropriately preceded a trip to Concord and Lexington.

Stearns School

The Junior Girls' Club held its first meeting on Wednesday evening at Stearns School Center. Annual election was the first order of business with the following officers elected: President, Dorothy Connolly; Vice-President, Margaret Terrio; Corresponding Secretary, Florence Doucette; Recording Secretary, Valanette McGrath; Treasurer, Estelle Le Veve.

A reception to new members followed, with Miss May Boudrot, chairman of the Program Committee, in charge of the program of games and music. At the end of the program, a gift was presented to Miss Helen Fisher, who will live in California. This gift was Joseph Lincoln's "Fair Harbor," which was presented by the Club President.

The Mothers' Club second meeting was held at Stearns School Center on Monday evening, Oct. 16. A food demonstration was given by Mrs. Estelle Seaver of Newton Highlands, who explained charts depicting food values, and nutrition. Mrs. Gilmore and Miss Dina Gilmore entertained with songs and recitations. The next meeting will be a Halloween Party on Oct. 30, with Mrs. William Cyr in charge of the entertainment.

In the last attendance reports, the Stearns School average was 96 per cent; the Eliot, 97.8 per cent.

The football game between the Mason and Stearns teams was won by the Stearns. Score, 52 to 6.

Miss Wainwright, who has been going on the annual geography trips to include all parts of Newton.

The Gamewell Fire Alarm Co. has already agreed to give the children the privilege of visiting the factory.

Cars have been provided by two parents, Mr. Alex Benoit and Mr. Paul Champagne; also, by the Stearns School Center.

Mason School

During the first four weeks of school the attendance in the Mason was exceptionally good, the highest per cent being 98.8—in Room Ten. The number enrolled at present is 653.

Thrill in saving clay very evident, if the boys and girls around the Automatic Bank in the lower hall is any indication. Miss Bateman's room stands at the head of the list so far, having 850 to its credit.

Room Ten, along health lines, reported twelve boys and girls over standard weight on the first day of school, Sept. 11. During the month ending Oct. 10, two more were added to the list. Milk lunches do help.

Last Saturday, nearly all of the Mason teachers attended the wedding of one of their number, Miss C. C. Crandall, who was married to Mr. Henry Burrows of Newton Center.

The Sponck, who has been at the Eye and Ear Infirmary in Boston, for several weeks, is slowly improving, and it is hoped that he will soon be back in school.

Miss Swallow's boys and girls have sent him fruit, candy and letters while he has been away.

THE ELIOT FORUM

being made to speed up the procedure, and as proof of the progress already made in this direction, District Attorney O'Brien of Suffolk will try 12 or more murder cases at the next session of the Superior Court.

These delays in the administration are breaking down the respect for all law. The respect for property rights are decreasing, due possibly to the loss of home control and the growth of material for amusement of the young.

There are four great educational agencies, the home, the church, the school and the theatre. We pay a great deal of attention to the first three, but the last, amusement, is neglected. And of the four great agencies, the theatre today has the greatest influence among the rising generation. With it commercialized and vulgarized, with the moving picture industry becoming one of the largest in the country the amusements must be heeded as causes of crime.

Mr. Allen said that there was less picking of pockets at the present time but he believed that pickpockets were turning into bootleggers as there was less risk and more profits. In closing he urged approval of the 4th referendum at the state election, not as a matter of light wines and beer, but as a straight forward demand for the enforcement of law.

District Attorney T. C. O'Brien of Suffolk County will be the speaker next Sunday noon in this series of talks.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The new Manual of the Massachusetts State Federation tells of the redistricting of the state, so that all of the fifteen directors now have clubs assigned to them. This divides the work more equally than the former plan gave a great many clubs to some directors, and only a few to others where the clubs were more widely separated. Following out the plan of the General Federation the Department of Work have been classified into five divisions with an advisor for each. The Department of Fine Arts includes Art, Literature, and Music, with Mrs. Grace M. Poole as advisor. The Department of Legislation includes Civil Service and Legislation, with Mrs. Frederick G. Smith as advisor. Mrs. Joseph S. Leach is advisor for the Department of Applied Education, under which are classed Conservation, Education, Home Economics, Mrs. Wallace P. Hood is advisor for the Department of Public Welfare, which includes Mothercraft, Public Health, Social and Industrial Conditions, and Volunteer Service. Mrs. A. D. Potter is in charge of the Department of American Citizenship, included under which are Americanization, Civics, and Friendly Co-operation with the Ex-Servicemen.

Among the Newton women upon these standing committees are: Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, Art; Mrs. Charles G. Galbo, Music; Mrs. H. A. Nealley, Civil Service; Mrs. Harry Burnham, Home Economics; Mrs. George H. Mellon, Public Health; Mrs. William D. Gilpatrick and Mrs. Sidney Peterson, Civics; Mrs. Corabelle G. Francis, Friendly Co-operation with the Ex-Servicemen.

State Federation

Broadcasting Federation news by radio from Medford Hills will soon be an established weekly custom, according to the plan of the progressive executive board headed by Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole. "Listening in" on Tuesday afternoons by the stay-at-homes when messages are to be sent out on the various activities of the Federation promises to be a popular pastime. Half-hour programs will be given either by the heads of the departments of work, or under their supervision. This up-to-date method of publicity was quick to appeal to those in authority, and it is believed that Massachusetts is the first of the states thus to broadcast its club activities.

On her wedding day Mrs. Robert F. Herrick, formerly Mrs. George T. Rice, who is prominent in State activities as chairman of Institutional Relations for the Federation, sent a check for $50 to the new headquarters at 585 Boylston street.

Professional Women's Club

Newton members are reminded of the Halloween Tea and Reception to be held at the home of the president, 585 Beacon street, Boston, near Kenmore station, from 4 to 7 P. M., October 25. A reply is requested.

Those who have heard him have been most enthusiastic in his praise. The committee in charge consider themselves very fortunate in being able to give the club so rich a treat.

Due to the hospitality of Mrs. E. J. Frost a special meeting of the Auburn-dale Review Club will be held October 24, at 8 P. M., at her home, 379 Centre street, and the money for the evening will be a musical. Each member may bring one guest.

The first meeting of the Newton Centre Women's Club on Thursday, October 26th, will be of especial significance and interest. At this time the "fruit" tanks are to be opened, which the club members have been filling all summer to add to the house furnishing fund for the new club house. The hall will be decorated with corn stalks and fall vegetables, and the tanks will be arranged to represent a pile of fruits. Mme. Helen Hopekirk, the famous pianist and composer, will be the soloist, and tea will be served following the program. Club members are anxious also to hear the definite announcement of the Fall Fete, which Mrs. John Capron will explain in detail as to date, place, and the special features planned for this event. The committee in charge expect a record attendance, not only because of the delightful program, but also to greet the club's new president, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., at her initial meeting.

A most delightful afternoon has been planned by the program committee. Mrs. George Lincoln Parker, chairman, for the first meeting of the year of the Newton Community Club, on Thursday, October 26th, with our president, Mrs. Sidney Peterson, in the chair, reports from the General Federation meetings will be given by Miss Emma E. Walker and Mrs. Corabelle G. Francis, while Mrs. Franklin E. Smith and Mrs. Edward H. Keach will report for the State Federation meetings. Following these interesting notes, a short play entitled, "Suppressed Desires," by Susan Glaspell and J. C. Cook, will be presented by the club members. Mrs. Edward M. Moore, Mrs. Henry I. Harriman and Mrs. Charles Sidney Esquivel, whose names alone assure the enjoyment and success of the play.

A request has been made that each member wear her visiting card to promote acquaintance and sociability among our six hundred members, during the reception and tea arranged by the social committee under the supervision of Mrs. Richard Porter Boyer.

Not only does the coming year promise profit and pleasure to all its members from the regular club meetings, but the classes and plans of the committees hold much of interest. Classes in Auction Bridge and French are beginning immediately, and the French under Mr. Moulton and the Bridge under Mrs. Prescott Warren. Members desiring to enter should make prompt application to Miss Helen F. Hull or a member of the committee on Classes. In the 11 o'clock French class M. Moulton will give a half hour talk on some literary or current topic, thus affording good ear training. The Earlier Class is for those less advanced.

Local Happenings

Monday's meeting of the Woman's Club of Upper Falls proved very entertaining as well as instructive, and there were a large number of guests in addition to a goodly number of the members present.

A which at the home of Mrs. C. W. Johnson on High street was announced for next Wednesday, October 25th. The proceeds will be added to the club treasury. Dressmaking and millinery classes are being organized. Mrs. William Clancy is in charge of the former. Mrs. McLaughlin's class in basketry is so popular that a second one is being started. It is expected that one in parliamentary law will be started later with Mrs. Electa M. Sherman as the leader.

The meeting of the Auburn-dale Review Club held Tuesday, Oct. 17, at the home of Mrs. Dennett, was a morning devoted to Tennyson. Mrs. C. Winthrop Blood read a paper on the "Life of Tennyson." The appropriate places Mrs. John F. Dunton read selections from his poems. Mrs. Dunton also read from "The Princess" and Miss Sally Turner delightfully sang several of the songs from that poem. A reading of "Break, break, break," and singing of "Crossing the Bar" fittingly concluded the program.

The Travel class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet Monday, October 23, at 2:30 P. M., with Mrs. Justin D. Starkie, 131 High street, Newton Lower Falls.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club will observe Presidents' Day, Friday, Oct. 27, at 2:30 P. M., at Players' small hall. David J. Vaughan, professor of Social service in Boston University, will speak on "The World Sweep of Democracy." Miss Katherine Perkins, harpist, will furnish music. The guests of honor will be Mrs. Grace M. Poole, president of the Massachusetts State Federation, and Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, president of the Newton Federation.

The first meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club was held Friday, October 13. Mrs. Gwendolen O'Neill, chairman of the Home Economics class, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Bertha B. Vaughan of Sharon gave a most instructive talk and demonstration of decorative dyeing. Afternoon tea was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Josiah F. Whitney and Mrs. Percival Waters poured.

Newton Federation

With the meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs on Monday morning of this week the year's work was well launched. The president announced the appointment of Mrs. L. M. Goodridge as chairman of Conservation to fill the place of Mrs. H. B. Walker, who was obliged to resign. The committee chairman reported beginnings, but nothing as yet accomplished, with the exception of the Legislative chairman, Mrs. Abbott Rice, who presented the five Referenda to be voted upon at the coming election and explained their purport, all of which proved very helpful to those present.

Mrs. E. H. Keach, chairman of the special committee on raising money for the Philanthropic Fund, announced the committee's decision to hold a mammoth auction party at the Newton Club on Friday, December 15. Mrs. Edmund I. Leeds will have charge of the Christmas seal drive, the money from which goes for the Health work among the school children. Upon the recommendation of the special committee appointed to look up methods in other similar organizations, it was voted hereafter to use money raised by the Federation for work undertaken by it, rather than to make donations to the philanthropic objects to which the clubs are giving. A few slight amendments to the By-Laws were also proposed, which will be acted upon at the next meeting. Mrs. Louis W. Arnold presented the budget for the year, which was adopted.

The remainder of the morning was given up to listening to two unusually interesting reports, one of the annual meeting of the State Federation at New Bedford, given by Mrs. H. E. Child, and the other of the Biennial at Chautauqua by Miss Emma E. Walker.

The Autumn meeting of the Federation will be held by invitation of the Auburn-dale Women's Club at the Congregational church at Auburn-dale, on Tuesday, November 7, when an educational program will be presented.

RISING—REED

Last Saturday Miss Dorothy M. Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Reed of Rockridge road, Newton Highlands, and Mr. Henry Boardman Rising of Boston were married at the home of the bride, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. George Lawrence Parker of Newton Centre.

The bride was gown in ivory satin embroidered with pearls, with a court train, and a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Her two attendants, Miss Margaret Hodge, and Miss Rilma Werner, both graduates of Wellesley College class of '21, wore gowns of rose colored silk with silver lace, and carried American beauty roses. The flower girl, Laura Hathaway of Cambridge, wore light pink and carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Mr. Sherman Damon of Brookline, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs Donald D. McKay of Newton Highlands, Norman Powers of Newton Centre, Arthur Knight of Newton Centre, and Dr. Malcolm W. Atkins of Boston.

A reception followed the ceremony, the parents of the bride and the mother of the groom being in the receiving line. The house was tastefully decorated with American Beauty roses and Southern smilax. Refreshments were served in the marquee on the lawn which was also decorated for the occasion. Music by harp, violin, and cello added to the gaiety of the occasion.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rising will make their home on Belmont road, Brookline.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College, class of '21, and the groom of Colgate College.

DICKEY—STACEY

Among the many October weddings was that of Miss Emma Ethel Stacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy of Watertown street, West Newton, to Mr. George Franklin Dickey of Wayland, Mass. The ceremony took place last Saturday and was performed by the Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church, West Newton, at the home of Mrs. E. F. Bassett, an aunt.

The bride's gown was of white pussy cat meteor silk trimmed with pearls. Her veil was of white net with a crown of rare Belgian lace and orange blossoms. She carried roses and lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ralph Evans of Natick, and her gown was of grey canton crepe, and her bouquet of red Jack roses. The maid of honor, Miss Ida Stevenson of Wellesley, wore pink georgette and carried Columbia roses of pink.

The other attendants were Miss Doris Carley, and Miss Ellen Bent, Babson girl friends of the bride when she was employed by the Babson Company. Their gowns were of sky blue satin and georgette, and their bouquets of pink roses.

A reception followed the ceremony, the parents of both bride and groom assisting. Palms formed an arch, and white roses made a decorative touch. A cousin of the bride, Miss Charlotte Hamblin, furnished the music.

BRING RED CROSS MESSAGES

Mr. George M. Angier and Mr. Joseph B. Jamison of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, returned from the Washington Convention a few days ago and bring to members of the Red Cross in Newton two important messages:—

First: All Red Cross chapters and branches in the New England division must prepare immediately for a big production campaign to provide clothing for the refugees who have fled and still are fleeing into Europe, particularly Greece, from Asia Minor to escape the Turks. How big this task will actually be remains to be seen, but that it will be of tremendous proportions appears to be certain.

A number of officials from Red Cross headquarters in Washington are already on the sea and on their way to Athens and Constantinople where they will take care of Red Cross relief work. Red Cross nurses in several European cities have been ordered to Athens, and other personnel have already mobilized there.

Undoubtedly within the next few weeks the Newton Chapter will be called upon to do its share in this relief work. Probably, for the present, to provide clothing.

The annual Red Cross Call comes from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving and it may be found necessary to ask for contributions for this Near East relief. We will know by that time what the necessities are.

Second: Red Cross workers may feel assured that present peace time activities will be continued; that the central committee, the governing body of the American Red Cross, is convinced that the charter places no such restrictions on the programme as would eliminate any of the current activities including service to disabled veterans, public health nursing, instruction in hygiene and care of the sick, first aid and life saving, Junior Red Cross and a constructive health programme.

Judge Payne, chairman of the central committee made it clear that the charter requires the Red Cross to take action to render disease, epidemics and calamities of all kinds less frequent. The American Red Cross is a semi-governmental, national organization, called into being for emergency work, charged with the duty of doing emergency work, but required to take action to prevent disease and disaster.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

Troop 7 had an extremely busy time last week. There was a meeting, an over-night hike and a trip to the Harvard-Bowdoin game. There are now about 55 scouts in this troop and many of the first and second class scouts were on the over-night hike, which was led by Assistant Deputy Commissioner E. J. Ovington. The boys were the guests of Mr. George Owen, Jr., at the football game in the Stadium Saturday. Mr. C. M. Smith, Assistant Scoutmaster, was royally welcomed back by the boys after an absence of two weeks, during which time Mr. Smith travelled throughout the central part of the country. Troop Committee J. Edgar Park and John A. Paine were present at the last meeting. Scoutmaster Harlan D. Crowell has high hopes that all of the boys of Troop 7 will be first class scouts by the close of the year. The Troop will attend the Second Church service Sunday, together with a group of 70 girl scouts. It is highly probable that another over-night hike for first and second class scouts will be arranged for next Friday evening at the bungalow camps of Dr. Irving J. Fisher.

Newtonville Universalist Church observes its Fiftieth Anniversary

Sunday, October 22, was a memorable day in the Newton Universalist Church, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the church edifice located on Washington Park, Newtonville.

At the morning service, the pastor Rev. Clifford D. Newton was assisted by Rev. John Smith Lowe, D. D., who preached the sermon taking for his subject "The Value of Things Unseen as above the Things Seen." Dr. Lowe gave a most scholarly address. A special musical program by the church quartet was printed in last week's Graphic. At 6:30 P. M., in the Parish House an informal reception was held where old and new friends exchanged greetings, and were served with delicious light refreshments by a committee of ladies, headed by Mrs. W. S. Higgins. After the social hour all present adjourned to the church, where the anniversary services were continued. Rev. Mr. Newton read from the scriptures and gave the prayer. This was followed by the Moderator of the Parish, Mr. William H. Zoller who gave a short sketch of the founding of the Universalist Church in our city and also read a number of letters from former ministers of the society, who were unable to be present.

FIELD—WALKER

On Thursday evening Miss Alta Eleanor Walker of Waban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cragin Walker of Hereford road, became the bride of Paul Joseph Field of Nashua, N. H. The ceremony took place at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. William L. Wood officiating. Palms and chrysanthemums were the decorations used. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Walker as maid of honor.

The bride's gown was of white brocade velvet on chiffon worn over cloth of silver, and her court train was of satin. She wore the conventional bridal veil of tulle and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. The gown of the maid of honor was of hyacinth blue chiffon over cloth of silver.

Charles Smith of Worcester was best man, and the ushers were Luther Robey, and Samuel Dearborn of

At both the morning and evening services special tributes were paid to the sacred memory of the first pastor of the church Rev. John Coleman Adams, D. D., who passed on last June.

Mayor, Edwin O. Childs then gave a fine address, his subject being "The Value of the Church in the Community." Rev. Albert Hammett a former minister now residing at Longmeadow, Mass. and with a parish at North Adams gave a rousing talk. Rev. Mr. Hammett is a firm believer that the time is surely coming when there will be one large community church. Such has recently been opened at Longmeadow where ten different sects worship together. The anniversary sermon was preached by a former minister Rev. Samuel G. Dunham, now located in Providence, R. I. Rev. Mr. Dunham took for his subject "Is It Worth While?" and emphasized the fact that the work for the next fifty years must be even greater than for the fifty years past.

At both the morning and evening service many old members of the church now residing at a distance were warmly greeted. It was a great day for the only Universalist Church in the city of Newton.

Nashua, N. H., Ralph Sexton, of Winchester, and Hall Walker of Waban, brother of the bride. The bride is a graduate of the Newton schools, of the Linden Hall School of Philadelphia, and of the House in the Pines at Norton. The groom is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, class of '17.

Mr. and Mrs. Field have gone to the mountains for their wedding trip.

NEWTON GIRL SCOUTS

Everywhere throughout Massachusetts, as in this community this is Girl Scout Week, when nearly 9,000 Girl Scouts are demonstrating to their friends and neighbors the value to the community of the training they are receiving, and then asking the community to support the expenses of this organization for another year. The budget for Newton is $3,000. A small part of this amount will be sent towards the State and National budgets, but most of it will be used here in Newton for the local work. Newton is a large and a rich city. Certainly its citizens will give generously to this splendid organization. Let us help our girls to carry on their splendid work—help them to enlarge that work—to expand as they want and need to. Every girl in this city who wishes to become a Girl Scout should have the chance to do so. Will you help to make this possible? The Newton Campaign is in the hands of the following Committee: Mrs. John Eaton, West Newton, Chairman; Mrs. Loring L. Marshall, Newton; Mrs. Percy R. Zeigler, Newtonville; Mrs. Norman W. Bingham, West Newton; Mrs. H. Alfred Hanson, Auburndale; Mrs. Melville Smith and Mrs. Elmer W. Davis, Newton Centre; Mrs. F. S. Gouley, Waban, and Mrs. Charles Mills, Upper Falls.

SMYRNA RELIEF

Arrangements have been completed for holding a church field day in behalf of the Smyrna emergency relief fund in Newton Nov. 5 and Newton Centre and Newton Highlands Nov. 12. On Sunday noon Nov. 5, the relief film, "Alice in Hungerland," will be shown in the Unitarian Sunday school with a general invitation to the public to be present.

So acute has the refugee problem become in Asia Minor that the Near East Relief has asked the American Government for permission to send 5,000 homeless children to the United States.

NEWTON DEFEATED

Somerville High School Winner in Suburban League Football League

Newton has been defeated. For the first time since the game at Somerville in 1919 an Orange and Black eleven walked off a Suburban gridiron on the short end of the score. It is a coincidence that this same Somerville team should be the one to step in and break Newton's remarkable record. The Red and Blue's 7-0 victory of last Saturday marks the first defeat a Newton team has suffered on its home grounds since the season of 1917. All of which makes the calamity of last week so hard to bear.

We predicted that Newton would defeat Somerville by at least two touchdowns. Today we feel in very much the same position as that army of sport writers who previous to the recent World Series had it all settled for the Yanks to wallop the Giants. While we must plead guilty to the crime of giving out the wrong "dope" we'll wager that when the whistle sounded the close of last Saturday's contest that we were not alone in wondering whether or not it was all true.

Everyone knows the backfield lost the game for Newton. The Newton backs fumbled the ball on seven critical occasions, they played a half-hearted defensive game, and let it be known, they were responsible for the touchdown which gave the game to Somerville.

We have nothing but praise for the work of the Newton line. Tackle to tackle it played as strong a game as ever a Newton line did, and it is pitiful to think that all its grand work was offset by the wretched playing of the men behind it. In Johnson and Dewing Newton has two tackles who bid fair to surpass the famous Newton tackles of 1920, Coady and Gullian.

If any one of the Newton backs ever had the impression that he was better than the average schoolboy player that game of last Saturday should have completely destroyed the delusion. To date the 1922 Newton backfield is the weakest ever to represent a Garden City team. It is all very well to say that the Newton backs are good ground gainers, but of what avail is it to gain yard after yard only to drop the ball when nearing a scoring position. And when can you recall a Newton backfield that juggled three kick-offs? We are not criticising the work of any one particular back. In the Somerville game they were all guilty of poor football and here's hoping they realize it.

Somerville's winning touchdown came in the first period as the result of a forward pass thrown by Capt. Blackman and caught by right end Mattern who ran 25 yards for the score. If the Newton third and fourth lines of defense had functioned properly Mattern would not have scored. Capt. Blackman's pass, good as it was, should have been batted down by Olmstead who was right in position to stop the play. But even when the Somerville end caught the pass there was no reason why he should have crossed the goal line. Mattern caught the ball two yards from the off-side line and quarterback McQuiston's play was to force the Somerville man out of bounds. This was the only logical move, would have made a tackle unnecessary, and would have stopped the play with but a few yards gain. Instead McQuiston made a poor attempt to tackle and Mattern dashed the remaining yards for the score which finally brought victory.

What about Somerville? We still hold to our opinion of last week. Somerville is a fair Suburban League team and nothing more. The Red and Blue has two good ends and the team plays football as if it liked the game. There was nothing in its work last Saturday to warrant it winning a Suburban championship. If Somerville doesn't lose two games before the season closes we shall be more than surprised.

The official who held the watch in the game last Saturday must have been in a hurry to get home. Either that or he had a stop-watch that refused to stop. The first half of the game was played in an impossible space of time, but judging by the way the Newton backs were tossing the ball around the shorter the periods the better. The cheering from the

WHY WEST NEWTON WANTS A LIBRARY

Primarily she wants it because she needs it. About a year ago some of the women of West Newton found conditions so bad in the dingy, ill-lighted rooms at the head of a dark stairway in the antiquated building that has for years housed our branch reading room, that arrangements were made immediately for its removal to the old vacant Congregational Church, where it now occupies a part of that building. It is an improvement to be sure, in the old conditions and location, but not what we should have by any means. The matter was brought to the attention of the Community Service Club of West Newton, an effective organization of over four hundred women who re-organized themselves into this club at the end of the war and Red Cross work in 1920. Their object, as their name implies, is to help better our civic condition where and whenever needed, to aid any philanthropic work of the community and to generally further our welfare. This being so, the effort to obtain, as soon as it was possible, a suitable library for our town seemed an entirely laudable and logical undertaking on their part. It is surely unnecessary at this day, to have to argue about the good that an adequate library, clean, well lighted, well ventilated, and centrally located does in a community.

Ever since Carnegie, about thirty years ago gave an impetus to the library habit by his generous gifts, people have been awakened to the need of libraries, not alone as a source and sign of culture, but as a necessary adjunct to the public school, and it is as pleasant as it is a frequent sight, as one passes through even small towns to see the attractive, modern little library building, standing by itself on a well-cared for plot of ground in the heart of the town, a source of pride and pleasure always, to the townspeople, as well as an invaluable asset to their common welfare.

West Newton has lagged woefully in regard to the physical aspect of the business portion of the town, and to the needs of its educational and aesthetic needs. The Community Service Club would like to help correct this condition and awaken keener interest in the efforts made to improve it. What better beginning could we make than to work for one of the greatest lacks—that of a library; a lack that seems hard to excuse considering the class of people that make West Newton their home. The criticism has been made that with business conditions as they are at present and our need for new schools so great, we should not obtrude other needs upon our public. But we are not trying to insist on a library building this year, and while conditions are unsettled and bad. Schools are built with money raised by taxation not by private effort and subscription. The club says in effect: We wish to work for this very real need of our community—a need felt greatly by teachers and pupils, as well as by those workers among our foreign population who in common with every one interested in Americanization work, know that a good library rightly run is worth as much as a dozen up-lift societies. The interest in, and desire for a suitable library is remarkably keen and widespread; we hope to keep it alive, increase the demand for it, and work unceasingly for funds until the City Council see their way clear to add to our funds the sum necessary to build and equip a library on a desirable site. Of course there are those that object to this project; they think that we are unjustifiably ambitious; that we should be satisfied (how that stamps one!) with what we have; that we should not ask for money for a library when a neighboring village has, perhaps, not even a reading-room.

Our answer to such conditions is that progress and improvement never come without effort and sacrifice, and that nothing is good enough if it can be better. No one ever yet attained his ends, by waiting for every one else to begin, or for every one else to agree with him. How about setting an example that might prove an incentive to an ambitious neighbor? No, let us make this very real need a common bond between us, until, by faithful and loyal effort, our work is crowned with success.

Already the fund amounts to something over $8000, all of it the unselfish gifts of a number of our generous and public-spirited women, and the Club hopes that this Library Fair to be given next week will materially increase that sum. The more generously you give until our object is attained, the greater will be your pride and satisfaction in the library when it becomes an accomplished fact. It is a great thing to do a good thing. President Harper who raised thousands of dollars for Chicago University, not once, but many times, said on one occasion, "I never beg, I give opportunities." Do you get the significance of that?

PRICELESS PUBLICITY

The Daily Missoulian of Missoula, Montana, has republished in newspaper form some of the editorial publicity which Missoula and the state of Montana received this summer and fall, from its entertainment of the National Editorial Association.

The Missoulian estimates that it had "one million lines of priceless publicity" and begins with the words "The editors liked us. What's more they went home and said so—out loud."

The section of the Missoulian devoted to this matter is a splendid piece of work and highly creditable to that excellent newspaper.

Co-operation

Every person who reads the following paragraph and gives it a moment's consideration will, I think, accept it as true:

Our operators are desirous of giving good service and are anxious to avoid errors. Error calls simply make additional work for them; therefore, every instinct of self-interest suggests that they answer calls promptly and correctly.

Mistakes occasionally will occur, some unquestionably resulting from operating errors, others from the calling of wrong numbers by subscribers. Not infrequently some defect in the delicate equipment of the central office is found to be responsible for a fault which the subscriber attributes to the operator.

It is our duty and our desire to strengthen these weak points in our service, whether the weakness be human or mechanical, and we can do it if subscribers do not wait until criticisms become complaints.

May I suggest this form of co-operation:

If there is reasonable doubt of the accuracy of our reports, such as "don't answer," "telephone disconnected," etc., I recommend that the chief operator be called at once. She is directly in charge of the operating room and responsible for its discipline. Therefore service criticisms should be discussed with her because in the great majority of instances, she is in a position to make prompt investigation and adjustment.

If the trouble is persistent, I want to hear of it and I will be especially grateful to those whose criticisms give dates and facts upon which to base a definite inquiry.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

STEARNS

The seventh grade, Junior High School pupils, accompanied by Miss Manning, Miss Phillips and Mr. Winslow went to Cambridge Wednesday morning, visiting the Sermitic, Germanic, Peabody and Agassiz Museums. All reports are enthusiastic.

A joint meeting of the Newton Girls' Club and the Junior Girls' Club was held Tuesday evening at Stearns School Centre. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Marguerite Lichten-thealer of Wellesley Hills, whose topic was "Personal Hygiene" after the discussion, final arrangements for the Newton Girls' Club dance were made, which dance will be held at the Bungalow in Oak Square on Saturday evening, October 28. A committee of four was appointed to represent the Club at the Directorate meeting of the Massachusetts League of Girls Clubs, to be held at the Girls' City Club on Saturday October 28.

The Stearns football team played its first football game of the season, easily defeating the Mason school by the score 52-6. Bernie Lyman featured with many long runs scoring four touchdowns. Butler at end and the backs, Slamin, Shea and Morrell started throughout the game. It was Stearns first game, and the boys are enthusiastic over their good showing.

The school football team in its second game of the season, decisively defeated the eleven representing Pierce school by the score 62-0, Tuesday afternoon on West Newton Common. The Stearns boys were out-weighted considerably but played hard, heads up football throughout, complexing the Pierce boys thoroughly with bewildering forward pass formations.

Bernie Lyman at quarterback was again the brilliant star of the game, scoring seven touchdowns, running the length of the field twice. In the last two minutes of play Bernie scored three touchdowns. He was uncanny throwing forwards to his ends, Mack-in and Jimmy Lyman, who also played brilliantly. She at fullback, Slamin and Morrell at half made many long gains and also were powers on the defence, breaking up many plays. George Cuslean at centre, with Jimmy Lyman, played the best of the line-men.

Stearns expects to earn another football championship this year and took so far is excellent for winning.

She said that the fire and sanitary conditions were now excellent. She suggested by way of further improvements a restaurant for teachers, and a library for little children.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis opened the discussion of the weeks system, its advantages and disadvantages. Miss Ruth Brewer of the Bowen School giving the teachers' point of view.

Mrs. Alfred S. Albee told of the "project work" of the 8th grades. Mrs. George Murphy, membership chairman, told of the gratifying increase in the membership, there now being over 500 members. Thirty-eight new members joined at this meeting.

Barry and granddaughter of Mrs. John B. Walsh of Marlboro street, Newton. As it was so near Halloween, the decorations were all of a Halloween nature with black cats, pumpkin Jack-o-Lanterns and witches in abundance. In the centre of the dining table, which was laden with goodies of all kinds, was a huge pumpkin containing favors for all the little guests. The birthday cake with seven bright shining candles had a prominent place on the table too. The children made merry from four to six with many entertaining games and then with their orange and black paper caps on marched into the dining room to partake of the good things. Anna was the recipient of many very pretty gifts from relatives and friends.

Among those present were Misses Hattie and Evelyn Dorr, Rose Shorten, Virginia Crane, Verling Rawson, Marion Vawter, Peggy Durkee, Virginia McCarthy, Doris Weinbaum, Jean and Miriam Morrow, Mary Gurley, Margaret Doherty and Master John Barry.

Uphold the Constitution!

By overwhelming votes in House and Senate, Massachusetts ratified the 18th Amendment.

In his address to the Legislature, on January 2, 1922, Gov. Channing H. Cox said:

"I am especially charged with the duty of law enforcement to report the difficulty of preventing traffic in intoxicating liquors since there is a variance between the Federal and State Laws. Considerations of impelling force require that the laws of Massachusetts be made to conform to the laws of the United States in this respect."

The House passed such a bill by a vote of 134 to 68.

The Senate approved it by a vote of 28 to 9.

The Governor signed it without delay.

The liquor element filed a referendum petition and the operation of the law is suspended pending the approval of the voters on Nov. 7th.

The question is NOT that of legalizing beer and wine. The question is NOT that of prohibition as a policy.

The question is: SHALL MASSACHUSETTS ENFORCE OR NULLIFY THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES?

EDITORIAL

In the consideration of the five questions to be approved or disapproved at the coming state election, we trust our readers will not overlook the fact that each one of these matters has been given careful investigation by the Legislature and has been enacted only after public hearings at which both sides were heard at length.

The more fact that these measures have received the approval of both the Legislature and the Government (please note the votes by which each was passed) ought to be sufficient evidence for their approval by the average voter. The pity of it is, that under the initiative and referendum amendment to the constitution, the voter whose political action is governed by mere whims or prejudices can defeat much good and necessary legislation.

In case of doubt, therefore, we urge the voters of Newton to support their representatives in the Legislature as well as the governor by voting "Yes" on all five matters.

The Good Government of Auburn-dale set an excellent example for other parts of the city in its meeting to hear the candidates and referendum measures discussed by friends and foes. The success of our representative form of government rests wholly upon the intelligence of the electorate and there is altogether too little interest in the community on these important matters.

BOY SCOUTS

The regular October meeting of the Norumbega Council was held last week Tuesday at the Newton Club, Newtonville. A large number of men interested in the Scout program for boys were present, and the meeting was one of the best that the Council has had. The Scout Executive, Mr. Wm. B. Sharratt submitted a report of activities covering all phases of the work and progress made since last May, and gave an interesting detailed report of the condition of each of the twenty Troops under the Council. Among the facts of interest were the following:

An increase in number of cabins for camping purposes in the Norumbega Council Winter Scout Camp at Dover. Troops 1, 4, 11 of Newton are erecting Troop cabins and expect to do some very progressive camping throughout the Winter.

Charles E. Barba, Jr., of Troop 11, Newton, has attained the Eagle Scout Rank, the highest rank that a Scout can attain. The work which Scout Barba has completed is worthy of mention: Four steps were necessary: 1—become a Tenderfoot—passing four tests; History of the Flag, Scout Oath, Scout Law, and the nine different knots. 2. Become Second Class by passing ten tests: Service, First Aid, Signaling, Tracking, Scout's pace, Proper use of knife and Hatchet, Fire building in camper's method, Cooking, Deposit of money earned, Know sixteen points of compass. 3. Become First Class by passing twelve tests: Service (two months), Swimming, Deposit of additional money in Bank, Advanced Signaling, Hike fourteen miles, Advanced First Aid, Advanced Cooking, Map reading and Map making, Handicraft, Judging of distance, size, weight, height, etc., Nature study, Evidence of true Scout spirit, Enrollment of an additional Scout. 4. Secure Twenty-one Merit Badges. These merit badges are not granted to Second Class Scouts. Before Merit Badges are granted a Scout must be First Class of excellent standing, then proved his ability before expert examiners to pass examinations in the subjects for which he desires certificates. Scout Barba passed the following: First Aid, Athletics, Fireman-ship, Interpreting or the study of French, Swimming, Scholarship, Personal Health, Public Health under direction of Health Department of City, Pioneering, Carpentry, First Aid to Animals, Safety First, Civics, Camping, Life-saving, Electricity, Cooking, Pathfinding, Handicraft, Bird Study, Hiking, and Automobileing.

Another interesting fact was that there are now registered under the Council 591 Scouts—this total just lacks 18 of attaining the total of last year. The Executive is confident that before the close of the Scout year on January 31 that there will be at least 700 registered Scouts.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Albert Edgar Angier School

We are glad to welcome Mr. Thomas Byrne of Newton to our school. He will serve as custodian in place of Thomas J. Klockner, resigned.

There are 192 children taking daily cracker-and-milk lunches in this school. The kindergarten, Miss Burbank, Kindergarten, leads all the rooms with 85 per cent of the children served. It is interesting to note that with the increase of pupils taking milk there has been a corresponding decrease of underweight children. From 126 children taking milk at the opening of school the number has grown to 192; at the beginning of school, 45 children were more than 10 per cent under weight as against 33 now.

Mr. Lewis Appleton Barker of Brookline, lawyer and author, gave a lecture to the junior high grades entitled "The History of Arms in Their Relation to the Progress of the World." His lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views and by several actual fighting weapons. It proved an extremely interesting and original lecture. Bradford Gove, Curator of the Angier School Museum, procured the services of Mr. Barker. The football team decisively defeated the River's Intermediate Team of Brookline at Brookline by a score of 18 to 0. Frank Spain, captain of the winning team, made all three touchdowns. The entire team played splendidly. Our school was represented by: r.e., Turner; r.t., Robbins and Holmes; r.f., Yardley and Rhinehardt; c., Haddock; l.g., Jones and T. Leach; l.t., White; l.e., Pelham and Cady; q.b., Spain; l.h.b., C. Leach; r.h.b., L. Woolston; t.b., Rosenfeld.

Mr. Horace M. Walton, Supervisor of music, was tendered a birthday reception by the seventh and eighth grades. It was an entire surprise to Mr. Walton and he was extremely pleased with the party.

MASON SCHOOL

The fourth grades have been taking their usual geography rides through different parts of Newton during this week.

The eighth grade are enjoying their weekly cooking lessons.

This week they are to study lunch menus, preparatory to giving a luncheon to the Mason teachers in the near future.

The captains of the eighth grade teams have chosen the girls for the Mason team. It is hoped that they will soon meet teams from other parts of the City for captain ball.

The first number of the school paper, the Masonian, will soon be published. Be sure to see how much the Mason boys and girls have saved since February, when the Automatic Bank was installed!

N. H. S.

The teachers from the Classical and Vocational High School were the guests of the faculty of the Technical High School at a get-together party which was held in the School library on Thursday, October 19.

Miss Mason president and Mr. Thurber introduced the new members of the faculty.

A game, which was to aid the teachers in getting better acquainted was played. Miss Rideout and Mr. Pitt were the winners.

Mr. Bacon principal of the Classical High School gave an address. This was followed by refreshments and a good time in general.

A meeting of the staff for the Dynamo was held for the purpose of drawing up plans for this year's campaign.

Albert Robble or the Technical High School recently contributed three volumes of literature to the school library.

The Girls' Hockey team suffered a defeat at the hands of Milton Academy by the score of 3-1 on October 19.

Doris Jerauld scored Newton's only goal.

At the Senior Assembly of the Technical High School on Tuesday October 20, themes were read by some of the students dealing with the kind of work they did during the summer vacation. President Todd Wallace presided over the business part of the meeting and Wellington Harper introduced the various speakers. The themes were the best from each division in the senior class and each one received quite an ovation.

A number of students reported to Mr. Walton on Wednesday, October 18, for the purpose of starting a Classical High School orchestra. These orchestras have been a great asset to the school in the past and as there is much interest shown this year it is expected to make an admirable showing.

TROOP 7 GIRL SCOUTS AT CAMP MARY DAY

Newton stands was the best part of the game from a Newton point. The cheer leaders worked untiringly and they called for a few cheers that were worth hearing.

Newton plays Medford at Medford tomorrow. Capt. Kohler will be out of the game as he is taking exams for Annapolis. It is hard to say just how the Newton backfield will line up although we expected to see O'Donnell start the game at quarter. Medford beat Everett last Saturday and should cause Newton plenty of trouble. We pick Newton to win in spite of last week's downfall.

Coach Dickinson has given Newton so many championships that we are up to be a bit too disturbed when Newton loses a contest. Some may say that we take the Somerville game too seriously. We do not think so. Coach Dickinson, together with every loyal Newton supporter, is ready to give nothing but credit to any team that is better than Newton. But Somerville as a team is inferior to Newton and it is that fact that makes the defeat so disgraceful.

The Newton Junior Varsity vanquished the Rivers School of Brookline on Claffen Field last Wednesday afternoon. The score was 25-0. The lads from the Rivers School were greatly outwitted and while they played well enough for their size they were no match for the young Newtonians.

Capt. Dudley Rhodes and Tom Gilligan are the stars of the Newton Junior Varsity. In the game against Rivers School it was thought best not to use Capt. Rhodes save for a short while. He was too large and heavy for the light Brookliners.

The backfield play of Tom Gilligan was the feature of the afternoon. This youngster is a pocket edition of Hank Garrity, hits the line like a bullet, twists and sidesteps like a veteran, and, best of all, knows how to reverse his field to advantage. If Gilligan will take instruction and keep a level head he will eventually be one of Newton's star half backs.

On Thursday next the Junior Varsity will go to Medford to face the Medford Juniors.

BAILEY—MITCHELL

One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was the marriage of Miss Charline McRae Mitchell to Mr. Charles Edward Bailey in Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Centre, Saturday evening of last week, the Rev. Dr. E. T. Sullivan officiating.

The wedding was of unusual interest as both the bride and groom have lived practically all their lives in Newton Centre. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Harly Mitchell of Moreland avenue and the groom is the son of Professor and Mrs. Albert E. Bailey of Lake avenue.

Miss Mitchell was attended by six bridesmaids, the Misses Eleanor Bradford, Margaret Rice, Louise Masters, Catherine Jones, Helen Gordon and Helen Barkerling, who were gowned in three shades of pink panne velvet and chignon with brown malle. The maid-of-honor, Miss Oriana Bailey, sister of the groom, wore a similar gown of deep rose velvet. The bridesmaids carried garlands of daybreak carnations and smilax and the maid-of-honor carried a bouquet of the same flowers. The bride's gown was white satin with full court train trimmed with rose point, duchesse and old family lace and her flowers were brides roses and lilies of the valley. She preceded to the altar by the full vested choir singing the wedding march from Lohengrin and was met at the altar by the groom attended by Mr. Lawrence Brinkerhoff as best man. The ushers were Mr. Robert Hawkes, Mr. Hassler Capron, Mr. Francis Wales, Mr. Otis Stephenson, Mr. Albert Bailey and Mr. Carlton W. Smith of West Newton.

REASONS FOR VOTING "YES"

To assist you in determining your vote in this matter we submit the following facts:

(1) The amount of alcohol established as non-intoxicating, that is one-half of one percent, was taken from the internal revenue department, where it had been in use over twenty years.
(2) Massachusetts, as the eleventh state, and first great industrial state, ratified within four months.
(3) Massachusetts is now classed with wine growing California and rum ridden Maryland as the only non-enforcing states.
(4) Nearly 5,000 policemen, constables and sheriffs, already being paid by Massachusetts taxpayers should be empowered to stop bootlegging, rum-running and illicit manufacturing.
(5) Our state courts cannot make prohibition effective without such a law.

(6) Even the handful of Federal prohibition agents have demonstrated the success of prohibition in Massachusetts but a state law would greatly multiply its power to reduce drunkenness, diminish poverty, decrease the population of our jails, houses of correction, insane asylums, and poor houses, and to increase sobriety, bank deposits, thrift and industry and bring gladness into the lives of thousands of homes cursed by drink. Two years' experience proved this.
(7) Until Massachusetts adopts legislation backing up the 18th Amendment we cannot fairly say we have tried prohibition in our Commonwealth.

(8) What is the question? Prohibition No. It is—"Shall Massachusetts uphold a part of the Constitution already approved by her? Shall the majesty of the law be maintained?" Once it required half a million American soldiers to sustain the integrity of the Constitution against those who would have counted it a "scrap of paper." Is the Constitution worth your vote?
(9) Failure to approve this law November 7th does not mean legalizing light wines and beers, but merely that Massachusetts will have to helplessly endure increasing lawlessness for four more long years.
(10) Here is the record. Massachusetts ratified the amendment. Our Governor recommended a law to enforce it. The legislature passed it—two to one in the House; three to one in the Senate. Will you help by your vote to make Massachusetts the forty-sixth state to back up the 18th Amendment with a good law?

If so, vote "YES" on "Referendum No. 4."

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

"November is the month when we glorify the home and on the day set aside by our President come together to dream of the past, to live in the present, and plan for the future," says Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs, in her monthly greeting to the club women of Massachusetts in the "Federation Topics" for November.

"Good government and happy prosperous homes are closely linked.
Without the first you cannot have the second and surely without the second you cannot have the first. For years we have been the homemakers, now we are asked to actively help our government to be a better one. Let us not forget November 7th, to perform our civic duty at the polls."

Touching upon conditions in the Near East she says, "We must find a way to give generously again this year. Let us this month, within the shelter of our protected homes, surrounded by happy and healthy children, think of those little ones across the sea and plan again through our clubs to aid them."

"On November 23d, at Roxbury, we shall hold our Fall meeting. Four of our club women will tell of the Biennial. We shall present one or two other speakers in the morning also.
In the afternoon we expect to have with us Mr. W. W. Husband, Commissioner-General of Immigration, to tell us of our immigration problem. Mr.
Husband is a forcible speaker and an expert on immigration."

Mrs. Poole's itinerary for the coming week is as follows: Tuesday, Newtonville Woman's Club; Wednesday, Wellesley Hills Woman's Club; Thursday, Council and Board meetings, also Melrose Woman's Club; Saturday meeting of the New Hampshire Federation at Manchester.

The presidents of the local clubs are requested by the Publicity chairman of the State Federation to heed the "S. O. S." sent out by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter and Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of the General Federation, relative to voting on November 7th.

Local Happenings

On Tuesday, October 24, members and guests listened to a delightful program in charge of the Music committee, Mrs. Lowell D. MacNutt, chairman. The Brooke Trio, Arthur Brooke, flute, Carl Stockbridge, cello, (both of the Boston Symphony Orchestra) and Katherine Gornley piano, were assisted by Clara Lieber Harper, soprano. The Brooke Trio upheld the Symphony Orchestra traditions, both in the selection of their numbers, and in their rendering. Mr.
Brooke's artistic playing revealing the possibilities of an instrument but little heard in concert work. Mrs.
Harper's charming songs, accompanied by Mr. Harper, were much appreciated. The club is indeed fortunate to number so gifted a singer in its membership. During the business meeting M. Talbot-Tournier gave a brief exposition of his method of teaching practical French, which is proving so popular with women's clubs. A class will start in Sterling Hall on Thursday, November 2, at 10.30. All interested are invited to be present. Notice was also given that on November 21, Dr. Sydney Dalrymple, pathologist of the Newton Hospital, will explain the Schick test for diphtheria. This talk will be of especial interest to mothers of school children. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to a large number by the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Walter Van Patten Steiger, chairman.

Through the hospitality of Mrs. E.
J. Frost a delightful musicale for the members of the Auburndale Review Club was held at her home, "Hillcrest," on Tuesday evening, October 24. Piano music was represented by Mr. Morris Zam, who played three different groups of selections;
violin music by Miss Marie Zelensky; and vocal by Mrs. May Sleeper Ruggles, a former member of the club, by Mrs. Arthur F. Fairley, a present member, and by Mr. W. J. Spaulding.
All the numbers were most delightfully rendered and hearty applause showed the guests' appreciation. Refreshments and a social hour brought the evening to a close.

Dr. H. H. Powers' Lectures
Dr. H. H. Powers has been secured by the Newton Community Club for the course of lectures upon Current Events for the coming season. They will be given on the first Thursday of the month beginning November 2d, and will continue through March, five in number. The lectures will be free to club members, while the public may secure tickets, either for the course or singly, from the treasurer of the club, Miss Emma E. Walker,
